“A good many of us,” said Uncle Eben, “thinks we’re standin’ up for de truth when we’re only bein’ obstinate ‘bout a personal opinion.”
“Are you an actress, Auntie?”
“No darling, who do you ask?”
“Because daddy said when you came we’d have a scene.”

Walt Mason is starting a bank with the money he made on poetry, proving anything can happen.

The worst man we know of got married because he heard a wife was cheaper than a janitor.

It used to be politics that made strange bedfellows, but now it’s prohibition.

Hurry with your vacation. Soon as it is over you will have to start saving up for Christmas.

The older a little girl gets, the more her candy costs.

An eminent doctor says there are 100,000,000 colds a year in the U. S., and we have three or four of them every winter, it is evident that we have been robbing some people of their share.

Now that women have the hair-cutting craze, these long-haired men ought to take it up.

Women jurors in Pittsburg want a smoking room. We thought all rooms in Pittsburg were smoking rooms.

A man of the hour in China only lasts a few minutes.

The career of so many fine wash-women has been utterly ruined by their ambition to become a movie star.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

THAT in order to boost business ADVERTISE

THAT the merchant who does not advertise wonders what ails his business.

THAT now is the time for him to quit warning a chair, cut out the day dreams and go out and bring in the business by ADVERTISING.

THAT advertising will make a live business out of a dead one.

THAT advertisers are always leaders.

THAT there is plenty of room for more leaders; Be a leader—ADVERTISE!

THAT progressive, prosperous business men and the progressive, prosperous buyers get together by ADVERTISING.

THAT the business man who hasn’t ambition enough to advertise is to be pitied.

IF HE HASN’T BEEN DEAD TOO LONG, HE

HAD BETTER WAKE UP, CUT HIS WHISKERS, DUST THE COBWEBS OFF HIS

DOOR AND BREAK OUT AND JOIN THE

LIVE ONES AND GET BUSINESS BY AD-VERTISING.

BETTER LAUNDERING MEANS GREATER JOY FROM LINENS

If you own good table linens you have a right to be particular how they are laundered. Also to feel proud of them, as there is nothing more beautiful than linens of good quality, properly laundered.

In our laundering of table linens, pure soft water, mild soap, churned into billowy suds, are our only cleansing agents. Frequent rinsings make them white as snow. No wringing. The water is thrown out by a whirling process which does not wear, tear nor squeeze the linens.

The ironing is done by gentle pressure between padded rolls, heated by steam. No scorching.

Results—snowy whiteness—satin smoothness—a pleasing richness of appearance.

Send your linens to us regularly and you’ll get maximum joy and service from them.

EAGLE FEATHERS

Our idea of the biggest optimist in Vernonia is the man who uses the rent money to make the first payment on a car.

People who earn their living “by the sweat of their brow” ought to be doing pretty well these hot days.

The 1925 model bedtime story starts out this way: “Are you sure that you’ve locked the garage?”

The country is safe for another year. We’ve finished harvesting another bumper crop of college graduates.

We had a warm spot in our heart for the Prince of Wales until he started writing poetry, and now we’re against all monarchies.

Most Vernonia men are just grown up babies. It only takes a minor dislocation to make them think the whole world is out of joint.

There are two things that get you nowhere—eating a dill pickle just before going to bed and wearing a $50. suit of underwear.

There may be ideal wives, but they don’t always marry each other.

When a Vernonia young man talks about himself a good deal he is bound to be a bore to everybody except some fool girl who is in love with him.

About the only fellow who is not happy while learning nature’s lessons is the chap who has ivy poison and chiggers.

The first thing the married women read in the newspaper are the death notices, and the first thing the old maids read are the marriage licenses.

The West is the Mecca of men of vision

THEY FELL in love with the West ... can you blame them?

Akron tire engineers with records of success running back a quarter century, knew the future held much in the East.

Yet when the West won them, they gladly transferred their training, skill and resources to the Pacific Coast.

Today C-T-C tires bear testimony to this pioneer move! Thousands of motorists in nine Western states have discovered that C-T-C engineers have put something into these tires that makes them outrun others. Some call it “stamina”; some “quality”. Others declare that the very training and skill of the engineers is embodied in every tread and ply.

We shall be glad to give you expert information about your tires, and — if you need them — put on C-T-C’s — either balloons, semi-balloons, heavy-duty cords or oversize cords!
