

The Flag of Washington

BY SABINA PENROD

We want no International, nor Bolshevik rag.
To float beside Our Banner, Our Dear Old Starry Flag,
The Banner of Our Country, the flag for you and me,
The flag Our Heroes died to save the Flag of Liberty—
Just One Flag, Our Flag, the Flag of Washington.
That always will, in Peace or War, in safety lead us on,
The Banner of Our Fathers, the flag for you and me,
The flag Our Heroes died to save, the Flag of Liberty.
We want an able leader, a man of sterling worth,
To guard this glorious country, where Freedom had its birth,
To safeguard all its people, on land and on the sea,
We want a loyal President, to guard our Liberty—
We want an able Senate, that's loyal, true and brave,
To guard us from the spoiler, in any crisis, grave,
To keep Our Constitution, in all its purity,
We want a Loyal Congress, to guard Our Liberty—
We want Our Starry Banner, the Ensign of the Free.
To wave above this blood-bought land, the Land of Liberty.
Long may she wave in triumph, on land and on the sea,
The Banner of Our Fathers, the Flag of Liberty.

JUICE—IT PAYS

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

—By—
E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Chamber of Commerce.

That electrical appliances are very necessary in house work. They are time, money and labor savers. No house should be without them.

That electrical appliances help to build health for the housewife; lack of them destroy health.

That electrical appliances do much to take drudgery out of house work. They make hard work easy and a pleasure.

That electrical appliances can be bought at a price that anyone can afford, and their cost of operation is very small. Every effort should be made to increase their use in order to reduce the hardest work in housework.

That the housewife is the one who makes life worth living. She is the essential part of the smooth running of the home and life. She is a true partner in every sense of the word; without her, the work of the world could not be done. Her day is long and taken up with work and worry. She gets few leisure hours. Electrical appliances will make her work easier and give her the more leisure hours she deserves.

SELLERS OF ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES SHOULD ADVERTISE NOT ONCE IN A WHILE, BUT ALL THE WHILE SO PEOPLE CAN BETTER KNOW THE MANY LABOR-SAVING DEVICES THEY HAVE TO OFFER.

EAGLE FEATHERS

A Kansas City man was knocked out of bed the other morning by lightning. It takes that to get some fellows up.

Next to his first baby, nothing makes a Vernonia man any prouder than pulling in his first big fish.

If the Japs use the same kind of matches they send over here they must have a lot of trouble keeping the home fires burning.

The fellows who used to travel about telling fortunes are now going around selling stock in goldless gold mines and oilless oil wells.

There are still a few old-fashioned girls who sit on the floor when they put on their shoes and stockings.

We heard one Vernonia man hoping yesterday for everlasting peace. He said we'll have it in order to make enough money to pay for the last war.

Some of us can remember the time when a man always asked a lady's permission before lighting a cigarette.

Vernonia still has a few men who try to impress you that honesty and piety will be getting scarce when people of their age are gone.

Half the world may not know how the other half lives, but the half that doesn't know is working overtime trying to find out.

When prosperity shakes hands too many think the work is all lone and signal the picnic train for a ride.

It is because they are cowards, not because they are modest, that most Vernonia men don't shed more clothes in summer.

We see where they're using old auto inner tubes for doormats. They are nice to wipe your feet on when the family has a “blow out.”

We have met Vernonia women who will admit they are not handsome, but we never have met one who would admit that she wasn't sensible.

Boys are no worse than they ever were. The only difference is they get by with it now, whereas the old-time boy had to face the music.

The yarn trade is better. This means cotton yarns are some worse.

Our advise to Vernonia boys is to work hard so that when they are old they can have the things that only young people enjoy.

A judge has ruled that a man can't make his girl give back the engagement ring. But the installment man can.

Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight; please make 'em bite again just for tonight. I've sat on this boulder for sixteen long hours, and baited with crawfish and doughballs and flowers, and minnows and rye bread and liver and bees, and grasshoppers, fishworms and limburger cheese. And never a nibble—a jerk on the line—of sunfish or sucker I've seen not a sign. My arms are fried brown and my nose is burnt red—my seat is worn thin and my legs are both dead. My stomach is puckered, tied up in a knot, and years for a waffle or something else hot. I'm sore and I'm dirty and thirsty and stiff; I've lost my tobacco and ain't had a whiff. And I've got the small-pox, the measles or pip; I'm all broken up on my shins and my hip. It's fourteen long hours by the road to my shack—to cold cream—to comfort—to rest and a snack. Oh, backward, I guess, is the way I shall turn; they don't want to bite and I don't give a darn! For I have been fishing—I've had a good day; now all that I want is some grub and the “hay.”—Eldee.

A large new store to open in Vernonia next week.

BETTER LAUNDERING MEANS GREATER JOY FROM LINENS

If you own good table linens you have a right to be particular how they are laundered. Also to feel proud of them, as there is nothing more beautiful than linens of good quality, properly laundered.
In our laundering of table linens, pure soft water, mild soap, churned into billowy suds, are our only cleansing agents. Frequent rinsings make them white as snow. No wringing. The water is thrown out by a whirling process which does not wear, tear nor squeeze the linens.
The ironing is done by gentle pressure between padded rolls, heated by steam. No scorching.
Results—snowy whiteness—satin smoothness—a pleasing richness of appearance.
Send your linens to us regularly and you'll get maximum joy and service from them.
