We call and deliver TUESDAYS and FRIDAYS.
Leave orders at the Columbia Barber Shop.

A woman never shows her age intentionally.
The money you save by not helping a friend is lost.
Nothing is harder on a woman's new hat than one of her enemies.
No, there will never be a revolution in America. We can't stay mad long enough about any one thing.
Chicago has a grand larceny case and this is no misprint either.

A man often gets stung by a mere butterfly.
The worst man we know about lately married because he heard that a wife was cheaper than a janitor.
The war did some good, it gave us something to blame everything on.
No prediction that the U. S. was going to the dogs has ever come true.

EAGLE FEATHERS

Another good way to make it rain is to have your car all washed on a trip.
The best lesson in thrift any Vernonia man can learn is how to hit a value basket with an oil stock circular.
Isn't it curious how weeds grow in hot weather while vegetables just lay in the ground and refuse to bud?
Wouldn't it be awful if the situation became so bad in China that the Christian nations would all have to go over there and steal all of their oil wells?
The only thing that keeps some men around Vernonia from becoming real “soap box” orators is that they're afraid of soap.
The fact that we have vulgar magazines isn't the thing to worry about. We ought to be worrying to think that there are enough vulgar people in this country to support them.
The best way is to so live that you'll never have to ask the editor to keep something out of the paper.
The Vernonia man who can find time to complain about how busy he is ought to be given more work to do.
A San Francisco man was sentenced to 1000 years in the penitentiary. We suppose if he turns out to be a model prisoner he'll get about 100 years off for good behavior.
We have reached the point in life where it's a mean husband who refuses to shave his wife's neck.
About the only chances some Vernonia husbands have of pleasing their wives is to die and leave plenty of life insurance.
Why is it that men who hate knocking in an automobile will do a lot of knocking about their home town?
What a wife usually wants when she doesn't know what she wants is more money.
Our idea of a pessimist is the Vernonia man who is afraid that when he gets to heaven the glitter of golden wings is going to hurt his eyes.
We know of one thing to be thankful for when Thanksgiving day rolls around—and that is that this is not a presidential year.
Barking doesn't always get a dog a bone, but growling usually gets a Vernonia husband a roast.
The question of raising more money to complete the present highway program could be helped out wonderfully if a law was passed taxing all bill boards on the state highway $100.00 each, every year. This would add quite a big sum of money, for it would surprise one to know the large number of bill boards there are in Oregon, dis-figuring the state highways. Anyway, a tax on bill boards would soon put a stop to that system of advertising, for it is not worth the money people expend for bill boards.—Tillamook Headlight.

Constant Advertising.
One step won't take you very far,
You've got to keep on walkin';
One word won't tell folks who you are,
You've got to keep on talking;
An inch won't make you very tall,
You've got to keep on growing;
One little ad won't do it all,
You've got to keep on going,
A constant fall of water
Wears away the hardest stone;
By constant gnawing Towser
Masticates the toughest bone;
The constant cooling lover
Carries off the blushing maid;
And the constant advertiser
Is the one who gets the trade.

Mrs. Walter Coyle and Miss Opal were in Portland the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker of Rockaway visited the first of the week with their daughters, Mrs. Frank Hardwick and Mrs. H. E. McGraw.

Emil F. Messing enjoyed a visit last week from his brother C. A. Messinger and family of Portland, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Swanger of Dausbury, Iowa. It was the first time he had seen his sister in eleven years.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK
—By—
E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Chamber of Commerce.

That the financial assets of a community measure its prosperity.

That money spent away from home decreases the assets of the home community and shrinks its prosperity.

That spending money in the home city does much to increase these assets and in increasing its prosperity.

That if you are looking for bargains, read the ads in local papers.

That at certain seasons stores needing shelf room for next seasons goods, make very attractive prices in order to move stocks.

That you should watch for advertised sales. At them you can buy goods at less than their real value.

YOU SHOULD KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN—WATCH THE ADS. IT IS FOOLISH TO DENY YOURSELF TO HOARD MONEY.

BARGAIN DAYS ARE FRUITFUL DAYS FOR THE THRIFTY SHOPPERS.

BARGAIN DAYS ARE THE DAYS WHEN YOU CAN BUY QUALITY AT LESS.

WISE PERSONS ALWAYS SPEND WHEN THEY CAN SAVE BY SPENDING.
