

NOTED EDITOR WRITES ON VERNONIA.

we are pleased to hear, the hearty support of the business men, and in this respect they are wise, for the home newspaper must be a leader in a city, as they do a lot of missionary work, and in this particular the Vernonia editor has loyally done his part in the up-building of that city. We most thoroughly enjoyed our short visit to Vernonia and greatly appreciated the hospitality offered us, so we are going to reciprocate by wishing the business men of Vernonia success in their efforts to make that the best, largest and most modern city in Columbia county, and of course it will become the county seat of that county in the natural course of time—Tillamook Headlight.

MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

Good first run pictures are no novelty at the Majestic—Vernonia's modern play house. The past week has seen some good pictures and as the Fall season approaches, splendid releases are scheduled for the full time. Some of the pictures shown in Vernonia are put on here before they are in Portland or Seattle. Another feature of the local play house is the music. The organist, Mrs. Agnes Kemper receives lots of flattering comment on the concerts.

Captain Blood was the attraction for two nights this week that is hard to beat as a picture and good houses both nights.

For this Saturday night, Manager Bush will show "The Code of the Wilderness," a truly Western picture that always takes well with a Vernonia audience. No better description of the picture could be given than the title, and it is a David Smith production.

A treat is in store for all Sunday night when "Chickie" will be pictured. A splendid love story told in a way that will hold you spellbound. "Chickie" is one of the biggest newspaper serials ever published, and in the casts are Dorothy Mac-kail, Bosworth, Nyrtle Stedman, Bowers, Gladys Brookwell. It is a story of love or money and comes out in the end just right. "Another Flaming Youth," only with deeper heart interest and heart thrills. That is how John Francis Dillon, director of the above picture describes "Chickie," the latest First National picture, which he also directed.

When we produced "Flaming Youth," I thought we could never produce another picture that would be better," said Dillon, "But since completing the direction of "Chickie" I have felt assured that we have done it. For sensations, thrills, color tensity and emotional acting as well as a lot of real fun and laughs I feel that "Chickie" is the best thing I have done."

On next Monday night is Yakima Canutt in "White Thunder." Some here actually know him personally. This picture is a guarantee of a full house and it is one of Vernonia's favorites.

"Percy" starring Charles Ray will be here Tuesday and Wednesday night. It is really the biggest production of the week and one of the most stupendous of all times. A picture hard to comment on account of the many features installed in the play. It will prove the biggest laugh you have had for many moons. It is fun and romance tragedy and love and then more laughs. And at last Poor Percy turns out to be a real he man.

On next Thursday and Friday nights that "Giddiest fun fest that ever flickered on the silver screen "California Straight Ahead."

RIVERVIEW NOTES

L. G. Reagan, Frank Cox and John Arnett motored to Vancouver B. C., Monday. Mr. Reagan and Cox contemplate locating there.

Ellen Enstrom, who graduated from the normal school last week is now spending her brief vacation at Seaside. Melba Laramore is also there.

Traffic has been thick this week and getting thicker every day. Autos are detouring around on Maple street making that quite a drive and busy route. Parking space is a premium and all should park on side streets as much as possible. A little inconvenience will be noticed while the paving is in progress, but let all grin and bear
