

MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

Movie copy this week is interesting, as we have looked over the advance sheets of what Mr. Bush has booked for the coming six days in Portland. Tuesday we heard a party remark about the late pictures being shown in Vernonia, and the speaker noticed that many times we see the shows before they do in Portland or Seattle.

For Saturday night the local play house will show Jack Hoxie in "The White Outlaw." A marvelous horse and a wonderful dog. It is a picture of thrills and action with thousands of wild horses on a stampede and a stallions fight to death. Mingled in with the excitement is a pretty love, romance and the girl and Jack are at their best in the whole exhibition.

On Sunday night, "The Lady Who Lied," will deeply touch the hearts of those who will see it. It is a powerful drama and drama lovers will not care to miss it. The lady will long linger in ones memory.

Next Monday is "The Texas Bearcat." A fresh flavor of romance and piquancy is given Bob Custer's new Texas Ranger production. "The Texas Bearcat" by the playing of pretty little Sally Rand, reported to be one of the most beautiful girls in pictures. Miss Rand who is a recruit from vaudeville has been a sensation in Hollywood where she recently was featured by Cecil De Mille in "The Golden Bed."

On Tuesday and Wednesday night you will see "Racing Luck," a feature comedy that will bring out the laughs if you have any in storage. It is a race and speed all the way through with Manty Banks as the knockout. It will cure the blues and make one feel better for the next days work. On Thursday and Friday one will not miss seeing the picture. It is one you will always admire.

Strongheart in "White Fang" You have probably seen Strongheart but never in this picture—his very best. One of the advertisers truthfully says of this picture. The world's greatest dog in the world's greatest dog story—the smashing, dynamic drama of Jack London's swept like a blizzard of emotions across Alaska—the most magnificent of backgrounds—a tender love story of the great north—and the devotion of a superb dog!

A picture that will get under the skin and send the red corpuscles dancing through your veins in a mad riot of exhilaration. You're going to say as everyone else is saying: "What a picture!"
