

MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

MOVIE KOLUM $... $... $... $... Theatre parties in Vernonia is seemingly answering the old question of where shall I go. The Majestic theatre is the drawing card these evenings for everybody. Good shows are the rule. Looking over the advance sheets for the coming week, starting this Saturday night, we find some exceptionally fine plays and some we have waited long to see.

For Saturday night for instance we notice billed is "Rugged Water" It is produced by the man that made "North of 36." Some of the best talent of the screen are in this production including Lois Wilson who we all fell in love with in the Covered Wagon. It is a show of romance and thrills, of the Sea and heroism. One that you will like.

The Marriage Whirl will be the attraction Sunday night. Corrinne Griffith is starring in the "Marriage Whirl" and being as Corrinne is actually going to be married shortly you will want to see her. Miss Griffith as always been a favorite.

On Monday night you people liking western plays will crowd in to see Yakima Canutt in "The Human Tornado." Riding his horse down the precipitous sides of cliffs where a mountain goat could hardly cling; swimming sweeping torrents with a wound in his arm; acquitting himself with all the masterful horseman ship which has made him twice the world's champion cowboy, Yakima Canutt, hero of the Pendleton "Round-Up," and Cheyenne "Frontier Days" sweeps through his latest western photodrama with the speed of a meteor. "The Human Tornado" the fourth of the Ben Wilson productions starring the only yard-wide, honest-to-Gawd cowboy on the screen.

On Tuesday and Wednesday night "The Humming Bird". A crowded house is assured both nights. Why? Because it is Glora Swanson in the leading role. We believe this Humming Bird is the best of the weeks offerings followed by "A Son of his Father." Anyway you don't want to miss it. It shows what a real actress can do in various characters and dress. This story offers the public a new Glora—a Glora wearing gorgeous gowns and alluring as ever in passionate love scenes, but also a Glora as full of pep and fascinating as "Kiki" (which role her "Toinette" somewhat resembles,) marvelously graceful and fiery in the Apache dances, a tigress in the scenes where she battles for the life of the man she loves.

Next Thursday and Friday nights offer another strong play—a question which is the better. We wouldn't miss either if it cost a good meal. These two nights it is "A Son of His Father." A Harold Bell Wright play. "A Son of His Father" was the first Harold Bell Wright novel ever to be serialized. It ran in McCall's magazine. The public, which is turning away from the gaudy flap per to the ageold ideal of wholesome American manhood and womanhood, will find honest enjoyment and real refreshment in "A Son of His Father." It is the most vigorous the most stirring and the most appealing of the famous line of novels which have made Harold Bell Wright preeminent.

A few of the big scenes in the production include the roundup of the cattle rustlers, calling into action an entire company of U. S. cavalry Baxter disarms one of the thieves with a long, wicked looking whip. The fight between Baxter and Walter McGrail is another "punch" scene—take it any way you want.

There are laughs galore, too. Bessie Love backing into a giant cactus. She also has quite a time with a none too friendly bull landing on the other side of the fence just in time. Hatton, also, has his finest screen role in "A Son of His Father" as Charley Grey, from Philadelphia he's a "sketch."

Then Brown offered the man who saved his life half a dollar. Did the man accept it? Yes, but he handed him 20 cents change.

Burglar—I don't want your life, lady, only your money. Old Maid. Get out, you are just like all the rest of the men.

Savages so degraded they mind their own business and don't bother their neighbors have been detected in the act of living peacefully in Siberia. Steps will be taken immediately to civilize them.

The upshot of the latest prohibition drive has been on liquor prices.

The government of Honduras officially denied that there had been a revolt, and then added "but the revolutionists had been badly beaten.

There is nothing half-way about Henry Ford. While other manufacturers were outfitting their cars with balloon tires, he was teaching his how to fly.

A Model Husband. "Yes, he's a model husband. Why he even sandpapers the fire wood to save from getting splinters in her hands!"

Bethlehem of Judea has a newspaper—Sowt-Ashag (Voice of the People.) It is printed at Jerusalem.

WHERE MONEY IS A NUISANCE

Americans have reason to be thankful for their simple and reliable money. The complications of the Chinese currency are endless. China possesses 72 different money values. As to the money of account, the Kikuan Tael, familiar in connection with the customs, the Hankow, Kuantung, Esaojing, Tookwai and others, each differ by varying percentages of weight from the "liang," or Chinese ounce of silver. If a traveler from Shanghai were to make an extended tour into the interior, passing through the districts where a manifold variety of coins circulate, the constant exchange from one weight or coin to another would dissipate a very large part of his capital.

known to take scales with him, and still his weights and the purity of his silver were subjected to dispute in different provinces. At coast ports, Mexican, Yuan, Dragon, Hong-Kong and Hankow dollars are all current, each having its own defined exchange value in the native market, while in the interior the added intricacies of dealing with cents and copper cash are so great that it is astonishing how business can be carried on without endless disputes and a considerable handicap to trade.

Speaker—I wish you'd be a little quieter behind there. I can hardly hear myself speak. Member of Audience, Don't worry Guv'nor, You ain't missing much—

"Is she a good driver?" "I should say so. She's already driven four husbands quite crazy."

"One swallow does not make a summer." No, but it sure puts spring into your step."

Slightly Autumnal. There's a hint of sophistication in the reply of a youngster to the question regarding his auntie's age. "I don't know 'actly how old she is," he replied "but a cup of tea rests her."

The small advs. get results.
