

MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

In looking over the advance sheets and history of plays for the Majestic theatre for the coming week, beginning this Saturday, we became so interested that we neglected business all forenoon, reading of the different exciting scenes. Sorry we can't print the stories of each play. Suffice to say, they are indeed interesting, entertaining and instructive. We will give our readers the names and dates they can be seen and we know you will say they sound good.

For this Saturday night you can see "His Majesty, Bunker Bean." As the name applies it is a comic—and one that will drive away any blue feeling or grouch, no matter of how long standing. A masterpiece that combines uproarious hilarious humor with a rich vein of veiled pathos, that is how a critic has described "His Majesty, Bunker Bean." The story concerns a timid clerk, whose ambition is to say when confronted with a crisis, "I can imagine nothing of less consequence." Confidence comes to him when clairvoyants inform him that he is the incarnation of Napoleon and King Ram-Tah. He learns to refer to his motor as "a l'il ol' last year's car." He thinks he can trample on women.—But he had not counted on "the flapper."—you'll laugh your head off.

For Sunday night is booked the one you have been telling the neighbor you wouldn't miss. It will inform you what to do with those wives—the good ones and the troublesome ones. The fifty most beautiful bathing girls in Hollywood were selected by the casting director at Paramount's west coast studio, to appear in "The Trouble With Wives." The girls were outfitted in all varieties of bathing suits from the one piece variety to fancy ruffled affairs designed by Travis Banton and Howard Greer. Bnton also created the eleven gowns worn by Florence Vidor in this picture while Greer created the nine costumes worn by Esther Ralston.

For next Monday night, "Call of the Courage. Absolutely the best western you have seen yet, with thrills galore and scenes that will make you hold on to the seat. Lots of good hard riding and something you will remember and talk about for some time to come.

Tuesday and Wednesday nights is another scoop in one of the best offered on the screen. It is "The Light House by the Sea" with Rin-Tin-Tin an honest to goodness movie treat for those who enjoy hair raising thrills the drama of primitive and unadorned emotions that strive and fight for supremacy, the glorious sight of a police dog in action—And as an additional stimulant to one's delight, a sincere love story running through the whole.

The story centers around the keepers of a lighthouse stationed on the Pacific coast, who stand in the way of a band of bootleggers that carry on their nefarious trade in that locality. The crescendo of powerful absorbing incidents is more than adequately handled.

Next Thursday and Friday nights is without a doubt Hoot Gibson's very best production. We all like Hoot, but never seen him in a production as marvelous or as interesting as the "Spook Ranch." Speed action, color, punch. It is something strange every flash. You will hold your breath more than once. The theatre will be full both nights. All the kids too, will like the Spook Ranch, as it is nearly Halloween.

CHURCH NOTICES

EVANGELICAL CHURCH
"A Home Like Church"

Sunday school at 9:45, with a class for you and a place for you to work. The young people league at 6:30 p. m. The morning hour of worship at 11 o'clock. The theme for the morning message will be "The Need of the Church Awakeening to it's Task."

The evening service at 7:30 o'clock. The evening message is always preceded by a half hour gospel song service that we know we will enjoy. The theme for the evening message will be "Is There A God." We extend a hearty invitation to all who do not worship elsewhere to come and worship with us.

Wm. F. Rademacher, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Asplund spent the week end in Portland.

If Mother's Bread has not been up to its usual standard of quality the last few days, we will have to blame it to the light company. To make a good loaf of bread it is necessary to have, in addition to quality ingredients, electric power to properly mix the dough. Several nights this week we have been without power to operate our dough mixer and as a consequence it may have affected the quality of Mothers Bread, altho we have tried hard to hold it up to its usual quality. Vernonia Bakery.—Adv.

The Miller Mercantile Co., who's purchase of the Kingsley's store was recorded in this paper last week, have been busy all week re-arranging and shelving the big rooms in the Kingsley building that they have leased. The new store will be one of the prettiest in the county.

TO THE PUBLIC

On behalf of the Ladies of the W. B. A., who gave a benefit dance for the needy at Treharn, Sept. 30th, they wish to express their thanks to all the merchants of Vernonia who so generously contributed either in prizes or bought tickets also all those who came to the dance.

The dance was a financial success and otherwise every body seemed to enjoy themselves. A few got unruly at the end of the party but were politely told to leave the hall. There was some trouble outside the hall, but it is unfair to hold the Ladies of the W. B. A. responsible for their action as some seem to think.

Yours for good clean sport all the time.
