W. C. T. U. COLUMN

"Our Motto—For God, our Country and Home."

The regular W. C. T. U. meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 10th at 2:30 p. m. in the Evangelical church. We shall have a splendid report from the state convention, so don't miss this meeting.

Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army, in a cablegram sent from New York to the Twelfth convention of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union, said: "Congratulations enroute to dry world. Tell Britain every man's duty is to throw his best into the conflict against the arch-curse of all peoples. Social, economical, physical and moral betterment of the race demands this. Give no heed to reports that prohibition in America is ineffective. It is racing toward complete triumph. Those engaged in illicit traffic are defeating themselves."

"The American farmer is standing like the Rock of Gibraltar for the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, because his prosperity, his welfare and his future are dependent upon maintaining in our land orderly liberty under law," Mr. Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, told five thousand delegates to the Kiwanis convention in St. Louis, Minn. Membership in the National Grange, the organized farmers of the nation, totals about 800,000.

It was Bill Terry who wanted a definition of Service, and Bill Stewart suggests this: "An itchy feeling that may be soothed without being scratched."
