PLACE YOURSELF IN THEIR POSITION

Eminent Divine Explains the Modern Application of "Golden Rule."

Golden Rule Sunday is December 6. On that day people of more than fifty countries will partake of a simple meal, will read about the orphan children of the Near East and then make such a gift as they would have some one make if their children were among the desolate in the Bible lands.

"The essential thing about Golden Rule Sunday is not the day on which it is observed, nor the eating of an orphanage meal," states Rev. W. B. Hinson, Pastor of the East Side Baptist church of Portland and Vice Chairman of the Northwest Regional Committee of Near East Relief. "The essential thing is that we should each for ourselves answer the question, 'What would I have some one else do if my children were hungry and some one had my income here?'"

"Golden Rule Sunday sets a terrifically high standard of giving. Parents worthy of the name will go hungry any time that their children might be fed. No sacrifice is too great if it is for their children. Jesus demands the same standard of sacrifice for others as we have for our own. It is drastic, revolutionary but imperative. 'Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I command you,' he cries. 'The one who would observe Golden Rule Sunday should, in his imagination, see his children deprived of their natural protectors, scattered like sheep having no shepherd, hiding by day from their enemies, gathering what food they can by night, exposed to the bitter cold of winter or the burning sun of summer, claiming refuge at an American orphanage only to be told there is no room."

"He should see old Hargus struggling through snows, an orphan grandchild by each hand, with the baby on her back, who finds at night that that baby has frozen to death."

"He should see twelve year old Charlamus struggling along with other deportees bearing his six year old brother to safety, carrying his body, even after he thought the boy was dead. He must see in these two boys not only the symbols of almost countless thousands of children, but he must see in them his own boys."

"There is little use to attempt to visualize the vast number, 35,000 orphans, now in American care and the equal or greater number whose helplessness is a claim on American charity, but for whom no provision can be made. When we see our own children comfortable and happy we can think of the same number homeless exiles in the Near East."

"There are few spiritual exercises more fruitful than this, and men and women who honestly attempt to apply the Golden Rule to these other children will not measure their gifts by pennies, but by dollars, by fives and tens and hundreds and thousands. 'All things therefore whatsoever you would that men should do to you (or to your children if left destitute) do ye to them likewise.'"

COOLIDGE PLEASSED WITH RESULTS

President Hopes "Golden Rule Sunday" Will Promote Peace.

Near East Relief has caught the attention of President Coolidge and the plans for the third observance of Golden Rule Sunday on December 6 has received his endorsement. In a letter just made public, the president says: "The reports of the observance of International Golden Rule Sunday last year in fifty countries, and its far-reaching results in the training of orphans in the Near East have been of great interest to me. This expression of brotherhood inevitably has a beneficial influence upon those who give as well as those who receive.

"As practical help is the best expression of friendship, I feel that the aid which we may give out of our prosperity to those impoverished by war may be of the utmost value in the promotion of international good will. The consistent observance of Golden Rule Sunday cannot but help to bring about the application of the Golden Rule itself to the misunderstandings of nations and individuals."

"I earnestly hope that the voluntary observance of this day may become increasingly prevalent in the homes of America and throughout the world."

In the annual report of the Near East Organisation recently laid before the senate by Vice President Dawes, who is one of the national trustees of the relief organization, a full account of the work done during the calendar year is given.

Recently the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Foundation, after an investigation covering two months, donated $175,000.00 to the Near East Relief to help refund the deficit created at the burning of Smyrna. At that time the Near East Relief by the free use of its orphanage supplies saved the lives of 250,000 people but incurred a deficit which it carried for three years, or until the Rockefeller Foundation came to its aid.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Perfume

One of the best methods for extracting the perfume of flowers is to place the flowers upon pure cold lard held upon glass plates mounted in wooden frames. New flowers are added daily until the lard is saturated. Dissolving the lard with alcohol, an evaporation process follows and the lower perfume remains. Violet perfume so produced is worth about $1,400 an ounce. (U. S. New Refugee Problem in Syria.

Beirut, Syria.—The Near East Relief will distribute 50,000 pounds of refugee clothing here, to assist in caring for 30,000 Christian villagers rendered homeless by the rebellion of the Moslem Druses against the French government. All Americans have been ordered to leave Damascus, where 2,500 persons were killed in the fighting of the past fortnight. Thousands of refugees are pouring into Beirut.

October 31st there were 30,000 Armenian refugees in Beirut, crowded into an "unspeakable" camp, and refugees were arriving from Damascus at the rate of 4000 daily. The refugees were sheltered in houses constructed of oil tins and "the crowding was terrible," as many as nine people living in a single small room, cooking, eating and sleeping in this tiny quarter. The sanitary arrangements were totally inadequate and water scarce. Many of the refugees were ill, with no medicine and the children were pale and sickly.

When Business is Good

SATURDAY night is a mighty good time to ask yourself this question: "Is our community sending more money out of town than is coming in each week?" Of course the only safe answer is "NO!"

This means that we folks in this neighborhood must patronize local supply men and merchants if we expect our town to prosper and "stay on the map."

Frankly, it means that every citizen will find it most profitable to read the advertisements in this paper every issue, and to follow their good advice.

Our advertisers are all personally interested in this town—and in YOU. They are helping you build a better home community. When business is good, their profits are being shared with you in an endless chain of co-operative betterment.
