as advertised last Monday. This was the finish of two stocks the Director Bros., were selling in the old Halton building. The brothers have stores at Salem, Portland and other points and are very successful business men. They always do what their advertisements proclaim for them, and they merit their success by honest dealing. The Eagle had business with them that was very agreeable and they made friends while in Vernonia.

Two men were becoming abusive in the course of a political quarrel. "I think," cried one of them, "that there is just one thing that saves you from being a bare-faced liar." "What's that?" asked the other. "Your whiskers." was the reply.
