MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

The holiday season is here, on in full blast and Manager Bush has went the limit in securing a weeks entertainment for this Christmas time. He will have an entire change of program every night this week beginning this Saturday night. You will say it is a weeks treat when you read on a little further. We are glad of the opportunity to go over the advance sheets today—they speak for a splendid time every night and who of us that won't enjoy this week before Christmas.

For Saturday night, tomorrow, we notice the best kind of a start off in "Hogan's Alley," starring Monte Blue, Patsy Ruth Miller and a dozen other favorites. The heartbeats of a great city; the romance of a young pugilist and the terror of the neighborhood; the clash between poverty and wealth; the drama of the Bowery in a thrilling and amusing comedy-melodrama—"Hogan's Alley."

And for this Sunday night will be shown "The Home Maker." Do you believe every man ought to be a money-getter? If the wife can earn more than the husband ought they to change places? If the husband knows more about children than his wife, ought he to bring them up? Is Efficiency everything in married life? Isn't love something? If you're married or ever hope to be, see this picture.

Next Monday night is a picture you like, I will like, everybody will like. It will be "Ridin' the Wind," with the maril horse Silver King. Fred Thompson personifies an ideal. His famous white horse "Silver King"—greatest piece of horse flesh that ever trod the earth—also personifies an ideal! An ideal of cleanliness—of vigor—of integrity—of manliness—of fine, wholesome Americanism. And what prodigious entertainment they give us together! What thrill! What fun! What sentiment! What rattling big shows they bring to us!

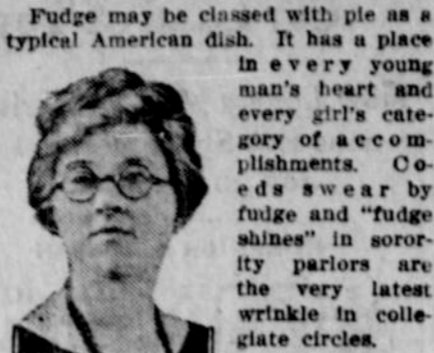

Next Tuesday night a double bill, a feature exposition, two in one: Mac's Concert Band, a Vernonia organization with that wonder picture "Satin in Sables." Everyone will be out Tuesday night. You will have to go early to get a seat. A really big night with a big program and a big picture. One of the best releases in the picture world today. Type can't describe it.

For next Wednesday night we will have another pre-Christmas treat. A home talent entertainment, a home band and Betty Bronson in "Not So Long Ago." She is your favorite, and in this gay play of good old fashioned days you will love her more than ever. It will take you back to those old times. This may be the best night of the week, it will be to some at least. Besides the romance, the love, the pretty scenes and coloring, you will laugh as you never laughed before.

On Thursday night is "Ridgway of Montana," with Jack Hoxie. Alone on a mountain top, trapped in a raging blizzard with a woman who has captured his heart. It is rugged outdoor romance, where brawn and daring capture a bride! It races you through tangled forests, over high ranges, up beyond the timber line.

Next Friday night is a date you will want to remember and you will remember for a long time. It will be Christmas night and to make it better than ever Mr. Bush has secured the "Golden Princess," one of the best pictures produced. If you could only see one movie picture, we would say, see this one. It is written on California during the Gold Rush days. It is sad, jolly, homely and tragic, it is romance and comical, it is comical, it is everything to make it grand. It will make many cry, it has made millions laugh. Old, hardened miners have cried while viewing it. We are going to see the Golden Princess.

Fudge Making Finds Favor With Co-Eds

Meta H. Given, co-eds explain, because it's one of the greatest sources of energy, containing both milk, the "perfect food," and sugar.

If you've any doubt of the place fudge occupies in the young male heart, try these recipes on him and hear his own answer. Each of the appended dishes was prepared by Miss Meta Given, doing research work in the home economics department of the University of Chicago, and they are the result of much experimentation.

Chocolate Fudge.
2 cups sugar 2 squares choco-
1/2 cup evaporated late milk
1/2 cup water 1/2 tsp. butter
1 tsp. corn sirup 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Shave the chocolate so that it will melt more easily. Add the sugar, salt, milk, water and corn sirup. Cook, stirring until chocolate and sugar are melted, and then only occasionally to prevent burning, until the soft ball stage is reached, or a temperature of 234 degrees Fahrenheit. Remove from fire and add the butter. Cool until almost lukewarm, 110 degrees, add flavoring and beat vigorously until when a little is dropped from the spoon it will hold its shape. Pour into oiled tins and mark in squares.

Cocoanut Candy.
1 1/2 cup sugar 1 tsp. butter
1/2 cup evaporated 1-3 cup shredded
milk cocoanut
1/2 cup water 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Put butter into granite saucepan; when melted, add sugar, milk and water, and stir until sugar is dissolved. Heat to boiling, and cook to the soft ball stage. Remove from fire, add cocoanut and vanilla, cool to 110 degrees Fahrenheit and beat until creamy and mixture begins to sugar slightly around edge of pan. Pour into buttered pan and when cool mark in squares.

Peanoche.
2 cups brown or 1 tsp. butter
maple sugar 1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup evaporated 2 cups chopped
milk nuts
1/2 cup water

Boil sugar, milk and water to the soft ball stage. Remove from the fire; add butter, flavoring and nuts. Cool to 110 degrees Fahrenheit, then beat until creamy and thickened; pour into a greased tin and when firm cut.

HEALTH

VALUE of health may not be reckoned in dollars and cents. Two thousand years ago there was perhaps some excuse for the gastronome, but today there is none. The way to health lies in a balanced diet. Hippocrates, the father of medicine, figured along the same lines back 450 B. C. He expressed the belief that the science of medicine had its beginning in the efforts of men and women to find better and smoother diets.

Diet in the home today is becoming a matter of premier consideration. Women are taking cognizance of those important food elements known as vitamins. They have learned, also, the benefit to the human body of such minerals as iron, calcium and phosphorus.

This knowledge has resulted in the housewife planning her menus with an eye open to dietary values, which is the big reason why milk has assumed such a large place in the menu of the American family. Milk contains every structural element for body building. It is an almost perfect food. Despite the best refrigeration facilities, milk will keep sweet only a short time. Millions of American housewives have solved this big problem by using evaporated milk, which is simply fresh cow's milk sterilized in cans to achieve keeping qualities and with sixty per cent of its water removed.

Evaporated milk is not the same as condensed milk, although many persons confuse the two. The condensed product is a combination of milk and sugar cane in a two-fifth cane sugar and three-fifth milk proportion. Evaporated milk has nothing but water taken from it and nothing at all added. Sugar is the preservative used in manufacturing the condensed product, while heat only is the preservative for evaporated milk. For this reason the evaporated product may be used in any way in which market milk is used.
