MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

The Holiday Spirit is prevailing at the Majestic theatre. For another week the extra good attractions will continue.

For this Saturday night (the night after Christmas) Mr. Bush has booked the old favorite "Kentucky Pride." In this picture are seen the world's best and fastest race horses. All horse lovers will want to see the animals you have read about so many times. The owner of "Man o' War," refused $400,000 for the horse. You will also see some of the best comedy you have ever had a chance to laugh at. And too, Kentucky romance, love and the big sport of the blue grass country.

For this coming Sunday and Monday nights is the big release of the year in "The Iron Horse." Every scholar must see it, old timers will see it and all Vernonia should see it. In "The Iron Horse," Mr. Fox is pictured in a very effective way one of the very greatest events in American history. The story of the building of the first transcontinental railway is only to be matched in peace time exploits by the voyage of Columbus, the landing of the pilgrims and the building of the Panama Canal. If this thought is kept in mind it is easy to get the true perspective of this production. "The Iron Horse" breathes the spirit of one overwhelming gigantic achievement. It is the romantic, dramatic story, historically accurate to the last degree, of the strange life which began with and accompanied the building of our first transcontinental highway. These men were the soldiers of civilization, opening a way for peace and prosperity.

Next Wednesday and Thursday nights "The Lucky Horseshoe" with Tom Mix. Bold Cavaliers, beautiful maidens, stupendous sets, numberless crowds, spine-tingling thrills, a well-known cast and Tom Mix all combine to make "The Lucky Horseshoe." A perfect entertainment. Billie Dove, J. Farrell MacDonald and Ann Pennington are prominent in the supporting roles.

For next Friday night, New Years feature is "Peacock Feathers." Peacock Feathers created a sensational in novel form, being read everywhere and included in every list of best selling books. Its popularity was justified, for the theme it seized and portrayed is a material one in the lives of every man and woman in this community. It lays bare the smirking, evasion of the girl who just can't make up her mind whether to marry for love or money. And it tells the man's story—the man who married for love, and found that his money was the magnet that won him a bride. No one who is married, or who contemplates marriage, can afford to miss this striking, sensational story. Its honesty, its beauty, its everyday situation will amaze and delight you.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia.

LEOTA B. PARAMORE, Plaintiff, vs.
FRED L. PARAMORE, Defendant.
To Fred L. Paramore, defendant above named.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of summons heretofore made and filed herein, to-wit: On or before the 8th day of February, 1926; and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: For a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, decreeing the plaintiff to be absolutely freed and divorced from defendant, and from all obligations thereunder; and for an order and decree awarding the care and custody of Wallace Eugene Paramore, minor child of said plaintiff and defendant, to the plaintiff herein, and for the sum of Thirty Dollars per month alimony from defendant to plaintiff for the nurture and education of said minor child, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem meet and just.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Vernonia Eagle, a newspaper printed and published at Vernonia, Columbia County, Oregon, by virtue of an order of the Hon. John Phillip, County Judge of Columbia County, Oregon, made and entered herein on the 24th day of December, 1925, the Hon. Circuit Judge being absent from the County.

Dated and first published, December 25th, 1925.
Date of last publication, February 5th, 1926.

LESTER SHEELEY,

Attorney for Plaintiff,
Residence and Postoffice address,

Just around the Corner

EVEN big-city folks must have their "neighborhood stores"! Most of them would no more think of going down town to fight their way through the crowds in search of a roast for dinner than they would of walking to the factory to get a pair of shoes.

City women know that their neighborhood stores can supply them just what they want — and that, in most cases, the service is more alert and friendly.

The same thing is true of this "neighborhood". Our merchants—the men whose ads you read in this paper — are in position to furnish your home with the best and most popular brands of goods. Not only can they save you money, but they gladly relieve you of a lot of worry and loss of time.
