YEP, THEY'RE ALL THERE

Portland Wins Cast Iron Hot Water Bottle at That.

The little some time back carried a small story about names of people who claim to be authentic, living in London, such as: Ima Little Lambe, R. U. Phean Goods, Knott Worthe Reading and several more, but now comes the Oregonian stating that we have people living in our own state and in Portland at that, with last names such as: Angel and Sinner, Gainer and Loser, Love and Haight, Robinson and Crusoe, Byer and Seller, Beer and Bock, Bathe and Tub, Lock and Key, Cain and Abel, Night and Moon, Heaven and Hell. Several Does but John Doe, as usual is "missing." Among names signifying edibles found are Bacon, Ham, Eggs, Butter, Berry, Citron, Pancake, Fish, Pepper, Dill Pickle and there are Coffee, Ale-wine Beer and Water. There are names of most leading nations and enough animals to stock a zoo. Sun, Moon, Starr, Heavens and Morning Star are among the poetical cognomens, while Drumm and Doll are side by side with names representing virtually all the trades, including the Boss. These are all taken from the new city directory.

The small advs. get results.

Mr. Gordon, of the Gordon Furniture Company, is elated over the improvement of business and its authority for the statement that "Business is Good."

WORTH ALL IT COSTS

After morning services the family dined, and churches and their procedure came in for criticism. Father criticized the sermon. Mother disliked the blunders of the organist. The eldest daughter thought the choir's singing atrocious.

But the subject had to be dropped when the small boy of the family, with the schoolboy's love of fair play chipped in with the remark: "Dad, I think it was a jolly good show for a penny."

Read the advs. carefully.
