MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

Biggest treat of the year is in store for all theatre goers. Especially is the opening night a laugh all the way through. We have waited long to see that greatest of all comedies and it will be here this Saturday, "Cohen & Kelly." A thousand hearty laughs! An uproarious knockout! You'll giggle with glee, you'll hip-hip with happiness, you'll howl in your helplessness as your ribs crack with laughter! Ever hear that on about "The Cohens and Kellys?" It goes something like this: Cohen said to Kelly... But wait! What's the use of telling you only one joke. See "The Cohens and Kellys" Saturday and enjoy all the laughs they ever made.

For the coming Sunday we will be allowed to see "The Little Giant," another good one that has been drawing record crowds every where exhibited. You'll grow callous in your laugh muscles chucking at Glenn Hunter in "The Little Giant." Glenn Hunter as the pompous go-getter taking the skids on the toboggan of conceit. Yet he'll win your sympathy and move you to tears. It's a high-pressure mirth provoker that you can't afford to miss.

Next Monday a thrille, three shows in one all for the price of one. A comedy, the feature picture and the original Musical Vaughns in person, music galore, all kinds of it. Monday night will be a big show night and all will save the date.

Next Tuesday night will see Jack Hoxie in "A Six Shootin' Romance." When it comes to giving realistic western cow country touches to a screen picture Cliff Smith, who directed "A Six Shootin' Romance" stands alone. In his latest Universal Blue Streak Western starring Jack Hoxie, Smith has given movie fans a beautiful done picture. It includes Olive Hasbrouck, William A. Steele, Carmen Phillips, Bob McKenzie, Mattie Peters and Virginia Bradford.

Next Wednesday night, wait for it the big picture "The Far Cry" You will talk about it for a long time and wonder how they did it. So colorful is the banquet scene in the new First National offering "The Far Cry," that officials of the company determined to film it in its true colors, according to an announcement from Hollywood. The episode in question will be seen in natural colors. Paris and Venice form the background for the new photoplay Blanche Sweet is featured with Myrtle Stedman, Jack Mulhall and Hobart Bosworth entrusted with important parts. "The Far Cry" is the first picture to be directed by Balboni, brilliant screen artist. It is adapted from the Arthur Richman stage hit of the same name.

Next Thursday and Friday night will see Norman Kerry in the great show, "Under Western Skies." A bucking, vicious outlaw horse. A tenderfoot of indomitable courage—the big Pendleton Round-up and the heart of a girl in the balance. A raring, tearing steeplechase race in a big, dramatic story of the great open spaces—a whirlwind of thrills and love interest featuring the famous star of "Merry-Go-Round" and "The Phantom of the Opera."

CHURCH NOTICES

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Oliver L. Curtis, Pastor

CHRISTIAN CHURCH ... $...
A splendid interest was manifested in the Bible school last Sunday. Nearly 200 being present. We hope to have at least two hundred next Sunday and each one counts one. Come and see whether we meet it or not. The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Next Sunday will be the beginning of a series of sermons on "The Keys of the Kingdom." These sermons will be both interesting and helpful and many are planning to be present.

Legion Notes
The meeting was largely attended this week; many of the Comrades from surrounding camps being present.

Comrades Carkin and Carroll settled a dispute in great style much to the amazement of Comrade Kullander. His protests were very heated.

Comrades I, your Comrade Petet McGraw, having passed all the acid tests of the politicians (and there were many) do declare myself a candidate for the job of General Nuisance Officer. Boys, I'm right for it. I've ran foot races in revolving doors and waited my chance to get out with the rest of you. I'll abolish them and there will be no more sprained ankles, broken necks and late for dinner excuses. I detect penny gum machines. They are not reliable and we'll do away with them. Many times have I squandered money in them. You have too. Electric toasters are always the means of burnt fingers and should be discarded. Boys, something has to be done. Cigar lighters, snap cuff buttons, and aluminum tags on the laundry. You've had those tags take an unlucky rake at you. If elected, I'll do my best to rid the country of those pesky devices. All you need to do is to send me your listings. I appeal to you, boys, with wails of distress. Do your stuff and give me a chance. This is a paid advertisement.

UNSELFISH IDEALISM BEHIND LOCAL NEWSPAPERS

The local newspaper in the United States is each year getting on a firmer foundation and becoming more and more useful to its home community.

It is the home newspaper which boosts the town, year in and year out, which takes the lead in every enterprise which has for its purpose the upbuilding of the community.

We frequently hear it said that the old-time independent spirit of the newspaper is gone, that its editorial policy is now subservient to the business office. Yet this is not true. There is more unselfish idealism in the average local newspaper than in any other business enterprise. It frequently speaks out in the way which it believes will be for the good of the nation and to the community, regardless of what the consequences may be from a business standpoint.

The local newspaper is the principal booster for the community, and it does its boosting often without hope of material reward. Unfortunately is the community which neither appreciates nor supports its local newspapers—Wisconsin State Journal.

Why all the fuss over one Edward Browning, 51, and Frances Heenan, 15, getting married. Daily papers have given them first page stories for weeks and all kinds of legal charges are being hinted at. Why? Browning is worth millions of dollars. Legal advice comes high to millionaires. Had the couple been without means it would have never been mentioned and no one would have cared—at least a smile would have been all the mention.

Sing This to the Tune of "How Do You Do."
If you have a bit of news, send it in: Or a joke that will amuse, send it in. A story that is true, an incident that's new,
We want to hear from you—send it in. Never mind about the style, if the news is worth the while, It may help to cause a smile—send it in.
