

AID TO BEAUTY

Under this young woman's skillful hands the front of the Administration Building of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition Association quickly takes on a delightful aspect. She directs gardeners where to place the small trees and shrubs about the great stucco building. She is doing her share to make the big celebration of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence a success.

MOVIE NEWS AND COMMENT OF LOCAL FEATURES

We notice a very interesting and excellent program of entertainments booked for the Majestic for the coming week.

Starting with this Saturday night the picture will be "Other Women's Husbands." There are as many husbands in the world as there are wives. Some good and some better than others. Married and in love with each other! Blissful happiness! Still the surreptitious thrill of other charms, other kisses, other playthings too quickly erects a barrier between them. Dick, the husband, ensnared by the witchery of a blonde woman who made a business of playing. Kay, the wife, bewildered and aghast at the horrible nightmare of life without love, turns frantically to Jack for comfort and tenderness. Other women, other husbands, all skillfully entangled in a fast moving, fascinating tale that ends with a delightful dash of the unusual.

A treat is to be offered Sunday night when Corinne Griffith osmes in "Mlle Modiste." Miss Griffith plays the part of Fifi, a super-modiste who makes a vain effort to adhere strictly to the rule of "business before pleasure." The beautiful star has never been busier in any screen role, she is everywhere at once, always smiling and disarming. When everyone else fails Fifi is called and Fifi never fails to triumph. Even when her sweetheart threatens to kill poor, innocent Hiram Bent, Fifi forces Hiram to keep still and makes his challenger apologize. Norman Kerry is splendid as Etienne, the French cavalryman who flirts with Fifi thoughtlessly, then falls madly in love with her. Willard Louis has always been funny, but never more so than as Hiram Bent, St. Louis hatter in Paris to "look around." Rose Dione as Mrs. St. Claire, Paulette Duval as Marquise de LaMar and Dorthy Cumming as Mrs. Bent also acquit themselves admirably in Miss Griffith's support "Mlle. Modiste" is admirable

Next Monday night will be Jack Hoxie in "The Demon." Worse than the constant danger of death from his outlaw employers was the knowledge that the only girl believed him a lawbreaker instead of a secret officer of the law. All lovers of true-blue Western pictures will cheer this one. Supported by the hel-for-leather Universal ranch riders and his famous horse, Scout.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday nights another big attraction is "Bride of the Storm." Will birth conquer over environment? Does the blood of our ancestors shape our character, or are we slaves to the circumstances which surround us? This is the question asked and answered in this stirring melodrama, a story of a baby girl, saved from shipwreck, who is raised to lovely womanhood by three derelicts of the sea, lighthouse keepers on a lonely reef off the Dutch East Indies, John Harron is featured with Dolores Costello. J. Stuart Blackton directed.

A big special for next Thursday and Friday is "Flaming Waters." Imprisoned, trapped with the flood of blazing oil upon them. A seething lake of blazing oil, behind a rotten dam. Flood waters swirling down on the sea of flame. A crash a ripping of earth. A hissing of steam in a threnody of doom. The dam bursts like pentup beasts of prey. The lurid tide, flows down upon the little cottage, where Danny O'Neil's mother and sweetheart are waiting—Aghast you will have to see the rest A marvelous picture.

A BIRTHDAY DINNER

The Women Relief corps spent the day with Mrs. Sarah Spencer, Monday, May 17, when she celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday.

Her friends and neighbors remembered her with many beautiful and thoughtful gifts. On Mrs. G. W. Faust gift was the following verse:
 "Dear Mrs. Spencer as I ever did see, gets up in the morning busy as a bee. She greets all her neighbors with a pleasant smile and then goes home and works awhile. Her two little feet goes pitty, pitty pat, she drives the dogs and chases the cats. She knows all the people that goes up and down the old Vernonia road to the old Portland town."

The big birthday cake that was baked at the local bakery was presented by the corp members, served with a pot luck dinner to Madames Gladys Gessell Smith, E. E. Miller, A. E. Jones, Judson Weed, Rhoda Hall, A. J. Kirk, Dave Marshall, A. B. Johnson, G. W. Faust, J. E. Cropper, M. J. Johns, R. S. Lindley, R. M. Aldrich, Alma Mills, Stella Monger, Lena Stanton, May Mellinger, Tom Troop, E. M. Bleile, R. L. Spencer, M. Dunlap, G. A. Morton, Martha Hall, Sarah Smith, Viola Treharne, Anna Cole, W. L. Hall and Mr. Judson Weed.

At the close of the social hour this poem was read by a friend.

You may count the passing years as a milestone on the way, And you've one more milestone with you.

This bright May day, Dear friend and neighbor true, We've gathered here with you Just to show our appreciation, Of the loving deeds you do. Though many trials and hardships You have seen You may meet them Calmly, bravely and serene. A lesson for love taught us By the milestones of your life Just to put away our grievance And our strife For we pass but once this way And the seed we sow today Will live after us Forever and for aye. So dear friend we wish you well As from you we part this day May you with us long years dwell So farewell until next May.

MONEY IN EGGS

For sale—Eighteen one year old Barred Rock, breeders, two dozen year old Rhode Island red breeders Three R. I. roosters, not related. All of above from fine selected stock. Must sell immediately. We are specializing only in the Anconas, White Leghorns and Brown Leghorns. Also we have a number of milk-mash fed Fryers for sale. Many as you want Eggs for sale, two fox terrier pups for sale. Better come out and start in the chicken business. All reasonable prices. C. J. Moore, 2 1/2 miles west of Vernonia on Timber road.

We are not going to vote for Rosa B. Parrott for state school superintendent. We don't like those big ear rings she wears.

The newspapers report the sheep hair bobbing season has been on all shearing season has started, but the winter in Vernonia.

The Slick Guy

NEARLY every one of us has seen the checkered-suit person with the velvet tongue. How smoothly he once told of the merits of this product or that—and raked in perfectly good coin for purchases that were often useless.

The "slick guy" is seldom seen today. When the wise person goes to buy, he knows what is good in value and fair in price.

Simply by glancing over the advertisements in your paper, you can see where to go for the best buys. You can compare values and check up prices without ever stirring from your easy chair. You know in advance just what you are going to get and how much it will cost. And you can have the satisfaction that comes from knowing your money is wisely and safely spent.

Nowadays no one need be at the mercy of the "slick guy." There are still a few people who fail to read the advertisements—and "take a chance." Don't be one of them.

How We Do It

Specialization of effort is the accepted modern way of accomplishing big things. In the Skaggs organization, specialists are in charge of each department—buying, merchandizing, financing, advertising, accounting, etc. Each brings to his work the advantages of long training and peculiar adaptability—there are no hit or miss methods—things are done in the most efficient known manner. Our accounting system, alone, annually saves our patrons many thousands of dollars. Just another reason for Skaggs better values.
