THE AVERAGE MAN

The average man is the man of the mill,

The man of the valley, or the man of the hill,

The man of the throttle, the man of the plow—

The man with the sweat of his toil on his brow.

Who brings into being the dreams of the few—

Who works for himself, and for me and for you;

There is not a purpose, a project or plan

But rests on the strength of the average man.

You may sometimes hear some people in good company interlard their discourse with oaths, by way of embellishment, as they think; but you must observe, too, that those who do so are never those who contribute in any degree to give that company the denomination of good company.—Letters of Lord Chesterfield to his son, October, 1743.

An itching palm signifies that you are about to receive something. An itching head shows that you already have something.
