Why is it that our customers tell time and time again that our pies (both cream and two crust) are the best they have ever eaten from any bakery and they say the same thing about our cakes. We hardly believe that in telling us these things they are just flattering us, we aim to make pastry that stands out as individual in quality and a trial will convince you too if its goodness. Vernonia Bakery, adv.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenman were in Portland on business and to visit their son, Thursday.

Here is a woman from the far east. She has traveled through many states and bought goods from many bakeries. She tells us in all earnestness (and we modestly accept her compliment) that the quality of our general line of bakery goods is far and above anything she has ever bought from any bakery. Does this mean anything to you? Does it not convey to you the thought that right here in your home town you have the privilege of buying bakery goods (and at no greater cost) that of quality cannot be surpassed by any bakery, anywhere? If you appreciate having such an institution in your town it deserves your support.—Vernonia Bakery.—adv.

THE BLOODSTONE—

MARCH'S BIRTHSTONE

Who on this earth of ours their eyes in March first open, shall be wise, in days of peril firm and brave, Who wear a Bloodstone to their grave.

The bloodstone is opaque, formed of the mineral quartz. In color it is dark green, spotted with red. The quartz is of pure silica and the red spots are caused by oxide of iron, which is distributed throughout the stone.

It will be well worth your while to call and see our line of rings set with this stone. They have a richness and beauty all their own; as a gift to your best beau, you will find them appropriate and much appreciated.

"Sally Lunn" Delights Audience at High School

The junior class play, "Sally Lunn," which was presented at the high school auditorium Thursday evening, was well received by those in attendance. Helen Heiber, who played the leading dual role, was praised for her clever acting of the two parts, both as a young matron and as a young girl. Miss Perce, who directed the play, was believed by many to be entitled for much credit for the finished production which was presented.

A girls quartet sang two numbers to open the evening's performance. They were accompanied by Mrs. A. L. Fenner. Ed Roles then demonstrated his ability to render orchestral selections on the harmonica. Clarence Wardle and Allen Ray amused those present with
