A. E. Veatch, editor of the Rainier Review and mayor of that city, was a Vernonia visitor Sunday.

Delicious hot cross buns, fresh every day at the Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Mrs. C. R. Twineham left Sunday for Portland for a few days. She will return tonight.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. M. Murray, March 20, a boy. The lad's name is Tom Richard.

For Saturday, April 2, we will have on special sale, Parker house rolls, hard rolls and poppy seed rolls at 15c per dozen or 2 dozen for 25c. Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Miss Louise Lester returned to Seattle Sunday after her week's visit with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Washburn.

If you require more than the ordinary small loaf call for Mother's bread in the sandwich loaf size. It is long and square and ideal for sandwiches as well as for the table.—adv.

T. Gordon and Geo. Thayer left early Tuesday morning to drive to Crescent City, Calif. They will be back Sunday.

Get out of doors these beautiful spring days. Why spend your time in the kitchen when you can buy such really good and wholesome pies, cakes and bread from the Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. R. La Rocque and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fenner drove to Long Beach, Wash., Sunday on business and pleasure. They returned with a good supply of razor clams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Seals, who purchased the Hy-Van hotel recently from W. R. Coyle, are already Oregon boosters. They state that after leaving Denver, Colo., and driving through New Mexico and California, this is the best place to live that they have found.

We have all kinds of fresh rolls daily such as cinnamon rolls, custard rolls, bear paws, butter rolls, butter scotch rolls; also raised doughnuts, cake doughnuts (fried cakes), maple bars, etc. Come in and look over our goods—you will find them to be just as good as they look. Vernonia bakery.—adv.

While reading meters Monday, R. La Rocque, manager of the Vernonia Light & Power company, stepped on a large rusty nail which punctured his shoe and penetrated his foot about one inch. He has been around on crutches, but says he thinks there is little danger of blood poisoning.

The Majestic

"I'll get that garter" This is the oft-repeated declaration of Charles Ray in "Getting Gertie's Garter," starring Marie Prevost, in which he plays the male lead, and which will be the comedy feature at the Majestic theatre on Saturday.

"Auto sickness" is the latest malady to which screen players are heir. Edith Roberts got it—it is something akin to seasickness, after the thrilling race with speed cops in "There You Are," in which she and Conrad Nagel will appear Sunday at the Majestic theatre. It is a story of the woes of elopers chased by speed cops and an irate father—and saddled with a lost baby.

"The Fighting Boob," the latest F. B. O. release, which will be shown at the Majestic theatre on Monday, is a well written and powerfully acted drama of the border country, and in the opinion of Hollywood critics, much the best of Bob Custer's series.

Said to be one of the finest picture comedies produced this season, "Rubber Tires," an Alan Hale production, will be on view at the Majestic theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. Harrison Ford, Bessie Love, May Robson and Junior Cogh-lan have the featured roles.

Hoot Gibson's wonder horse "Pal," who has appeared with him in so many pictures, is again much in evidence in "The Silent Rider," Gibson's latest starring vehicle which comes to the Majestic theatre Thursday and Friday. "The Silent Rider" was adapted from Katherine Newlin Burt's magazine story "The Red Headed Husband." Blanche Mehaffey and a strong cast support Gibson.

MIST

Mrs. Verne Ferguson and Mrs. Percy Meila, with their respective children, left Monday after a short visit at Grandma and Grandpa Meila's.

Friends and acquaintances of Althea Elston will be interested to know that she died March 15 at The Dalles after an illness of only a few hours, and was buried on March 19 at the Rose City cemetery. She smashed her thumb in a coop and though she suffered no more than is usual with such an injury, septic poisoning set in and it was necessary to lance the thumb.

She seemed to be getting along nicely when Tuesday night she became suddenly ill and was removed in an unconscious condition to the hospital. Four doctors held a brief consultation and she was shortly considered out of danger. She talked with her mother and asked that some articles be brought her the next day, then fell asleep. Fifteen minutes later, at 2 a.m., she was dead. Althea lived with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson and attended the Birkenfeld high school three years ago and has visited several times in the valley since. She also accompanied them on their coast to coast trip last year. A small party from Mist attended the funeral services; also Miss Van Gross a former Birkenfeld high school teacher who is at present teaching in Portland.

Mrs. Fenton entertained 17 persons at lunch last Thursday. An enjoyable social time was had by all.

The declamatory contest was held at Rainier Friday evening. There were three contestants from this school as they took three of the four prizes at Birkenfeld in the district contest the week before. Winners then were Anna Cheemonek, Irene De Rock and Orville Jones with Willa Lowden and Alice Cambridge tying for first. However it was finally given to Alice. She won first at Rainier also and Irene and Orville brought home a first and second. There was a good representation from Mist and it was time well spent and we are justly proud of our prize winners.

Mrs. Dowling visited Friday with Mrs. Sundland.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Nelson drove to Portland Sunday.

Several Mist folk attended the Wright auction at Marshland Monday.

Mrs. Reynolds returned from Seaside Sunday after a short visit with her relatives, the McCaullys.

A large number of people enjoyed the party at Her's Saturday night and the number would have been larger had that not been the night for grange meeting. That was also well attended and a good time had by everyone there. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Moe, with others helping out occasionally and at Her's by George Jones and Jim McMullen.

Loretta Johnson spent Saturday night with Ida Turner.

The Monmouth Normal girls were in for the spring vacation. They returned to school Sunday.

Oregon bank resources average $428.02 per capita, with one bank to every 3000 people.

Astoria Shipbuilding Company will build $30,000 pleasure and fishing cruiser.
