The Vernonia Bakery is a Vernonia institution. For its support it depends solely upon Vernonia people and those living adjacent thereto. It gives employment to six people. It pays taxes (and mighty high, too) for the support of Vernonia and Columbia county. It produces goods which are second to none quality. Does not such an institution deserve loyal support? adv.

Losses from stinking smut (bunt) of wheat in the United States as represented by decreased yield have been estimated at about 14,000,000 bushels annually, while dockage for smutty grain probably totals 10,000,000 each year. A considerable loss also results from explosions due to the fact that the spores of stinking smut are extremely combustible when beaten up into a dust. In the state of Washington many thousands of dollars have been lost in a single county in one season as a result of these explosions.

Dorothy June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wolff, is back in school again after an attack of the mumps.
