

The Majestic

Any man who starts out to spend the savings of a lifetime in seven days has a hectic undertaking on his hands, according to Johnny Haron, who will play at the Majestic theatre Saturday in 'Love Makes 'Em Wild.' This story centers about the struggle of a young American who is determined to make good despite innumerable handicaps. Sally Phipps is the girl in the case.

What was probably the most crushing defeat ever suffered by British arms, and, incidentally, occasioned by the conceit and stubbornness of one man, forms one of the high spots in "Winners of the Wilderness," starring Tim McCoy and showing Sunday.

The sixth sense of an animal, the sense of intuition, is brought into play at the Majestic theatre next Monday in Jack Hoxies "The Western Whirlwind."

A complete baseball training camp was established and winter training carried on at the studios for the filming of "Slide, Kelly, Slide," baseball romance to be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday. Many professional ballplayers from all over the world took part in the production.

Can a pampered girl go to college trample on cherished tradition and get away with it? Ask Bebe Daniels. She knows, having been through every possible entanglement in campus ethics. "The Campus Flirt" comes Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Roy Dexter of Portland and Mrs. S. J. Wassenar and two small children of Vancouver, Wash., visited from Thursday to Tuesday with their sister, Mrs. Mark E. Moe.

NATAL

The Natal grange No. 302 gave a party and dance last Saturday evening. All reported a nice time. Mrs. Oliver Burris and Miss Perry were Vernonia shoppers one day last week.

Miss Beatrice Perry was a Vernonia visitor yesterday. The Natal Sunday school had a very good attendance Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howlett and children and their near neighbor and family were Sunday visitors at the Burris home.

The Birkenfeld Logging company is moving their donkey engine from the Natal bridge down to James Meadullen's place, where they intend logging in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Peterson and son Richard were Sunday visitors at the Burris home.

Omar Burris and recent bride visited his parents a short time ago.

Local folk are sorry to know that Mrs. L. B. Eastman is quite ill.

Mrs. Reed Holding is often seen driving around in her new car.

Card of Thanks.

We want to thank the many friends who so kindly assisted during the illness, death and burial of our loving husband and brother, T. C. Hall, and especially the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Vernonia, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

Rhoda Hall,
Riley Hall.
