A fair loaf of bread can be made from cheap flour and cheap ingredients, but in Mothers bread you get only the best, regardless of cost. You may get a larger loaf for less money, but with bread, as with every other commodity, you get only what you pay for. Our prices are uniform—they are the same as is paid for good bread in any community and when you buy Mother's bread you may rest assured that you have the best. Insist that you be given Mother's bread, always.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Patton moved to their former home in Washington last week.
