The Vernonia Bakery is a Vernonia institution. Its very life depends upon the business that you as a resident of Vernonia or surrounding country give to it. It produces only quality goods at a fair price. Does not such a situation deserve your loyal support. Your business is appreciated and we try to give you service as well as quality. Use home products and you can do this by insisting that your grocer sell you Mother's Bread. Let him give you no other—the money that helps you and the city of Vernonia is that money which you keep in circulation here, not Portland or some other town.—Vernonia Bakery.—adv.

Speaking before a recent session of the international congress of soil science held in Washington, an eminent Dutch soil scientist told the delegates that the absolute population limit of the human race is about 8 billion persons. He based his conclusions on a very intensive study which he has made of crop capacities of all sections of the world. He says "the land of the earth will feed 8 billion people if the most efficient farming methods now being used are applied to all land which will raise a crop."

peanuts require less work. Hay and small grain crops are usually produced with the least labor.
