Lard barrels for sale at the Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Troy Smith, July 8, a boy. His name is Troy Junior.

Life for us is just one loaf after another. If you want a good loaf ask for Mother's—there is none better.—adv.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Steiner, July 2, a boy. His name is Glyn Elmer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Owens and daughter are visiting for a week or so with their son.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Gisa-buro Kuge, Japanese, July 6, a boy. He has been named Henry Mitsuru.

Compare Mother's bread with any other bread on the market and you will find that it is second to none. It is a quality loaf through and through and why not have the best—ask for Mother's bread.—adv.

Mountain Heart Rebekah club will give a cooked food sale and will serve sandwiches, cake, pie, and coffee at the Van Alstine building, next door to the post office, Saturday, July 23.

When you need more bread than the regular one-pound loaf ask for Mother's bread in the sandwich loaf size. No other bread can be left.

compared to it for making delicious sandwiches that stay fresh longer and it is as equally nice for the table.—adv.

Wm. Aspland, G. C. Millinger and Ray Emmott returned last week from a trip into the Cascades east of Eugene. They reported one of the best fishing trips they had ever experienced.

We sell a lot of cakes and there is a reason—they are good. But they should be good since we use only the best ingredients in them—the same quality products that you would use in your own home. Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Rev. T. W. Leavitt and family were moved from Roseburg to Vernonia on Wednesday and Thursday of last week by W. O. Porterfield. They are now established in the parsonage just west of the Christian church.

Picnics are not complete without a bountiful supply of good sandwiches, and the most delicious sandwiches are made with buns. We have them on hand at all times but should you want more than two or three dozen won't you please order them a day ahead? Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Dr. C. J. Wight, who recently returned from Alaska, reports that he has never seen worse weather in that country. There was a snow storm the day he left, and the thermometer did not register higher than 50 degrees any day he was there. Dr. Wight states that he may go back up there later in the summer, when the whaling industry is expected to improve. Few were caught up to the time he loaf size. No other bread can be left.

There seems to be some confusion in the minds of our customers as to the kind of bread sold at Skaggs store. Skaggs store does not sell any Vernonia bread. The bread which they do sell is made in their own Portland bakery and shipped to Vernonia. Therefore, when you want Mother's bread buy it from us direct or from any other store in Vernonia. Vernonia bakery.—adv.

Accompanied by his daughter, Katherine, and two sons Charles and Robert, C. S. Hoffman left here Sunday to drive to Elk Point, S. D., for a visit with his mother and sisters. They expect to stop at Yellowstone park on the way. They plan to return by the end of August, according to Mrs. Hoffman.

Judson Weed was a Vernonia visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. E. H. Washburn was a St. Helens visitor Monday.

Dr. Rones Here Monday
Dr. H. C. Rones, eye specialist will make his regular visit to Vernonia Monday, July 25. Consult him for your eye troubles at the office of Dr. M. D. Cole.—adv.

Oregon Is Providing Lure to Settlers

loop and were well satisfied that Oregon is indeed a land of promise.

M. D. Zander and his father passed through Portland from Seattle on their way to the Umpqua to which they had been attracted.

From Mankato, was J. Purdune also accompanied by his father. Other relatives of these homeseekers had already settled in Oregon, making the appeal of the state doubly strong to Mr. Purdune in his search for a ranch.

Interested in Klamath Falls, M. E. Wilson, formerly of North Dakota and the Canadian Northwest, spent some time in the Portland office gathering information about the southern part of the state.

Most of the arriving families are found to have sufficient means to make substantial investments in Oregon agricultural lands, a fact most encouraging for the increased prosperity of the state.

Chamber Meets Today
The Chamber of Commerce will meet at noon today at the Depot cafe. Secretary Sheeley promises a speaker from a member of a Washington brick concern.
