Reithners Return From East
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reithner and son Ralph returned Friday from an extended trip to Ohio and Minnesota, where they spent some time visiting friends and relatives.

Upon leaving here they traveled through California, touched Mexico, crossed to Texas and then went north to Ohio, stopping in many scenic places for several days at a time.

Mr. Reithner states that the growth of Cleveland has been astonishing in the six years since he has been there. Many new factories have been built, although the farm land under cultivation has not been increased.

Ralph Reithner, who graduated from the local high school this spring, plans to enter a business college this fall.

Notice
On account of Labor Day falling on the date of his regular visit, Dr. Luzader, Eyesight specialist, will postpone his visit to September 12 and 13. Please keep this change of date in mind, and make appointment with Mr. Kullander.
