

Suzanne, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Murray, suffered a broken arm during a fall, while playing Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Mac Thornton of Portland spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Powell and family.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wolf were in Portland shopping Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Drorbaugh is ill at her home in Riverview.

M. E. Carlin has been ill the past week with a severe cold.

Our Pumpkin pie is good and our customers say that it is so it must be so. Vernonia Bakery, adv.

Wayne Lappe and daughter Frances spent the week end visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis of Longview, Wash., spent the week end at the V. L. Powell home.

Whether you personally buy your bread from your grocer or order it over the phone insist that he send you Mother's Bread.—adv.

Mother's bread in the sandwich loaf size is ideal for sandwiches and by many is used for every purpose as it is just as nice on the table as in the lunch bucket, ad.

Failure of the orchestra to arrive disappointed many who expected to attend the American Legion dance last Saturday night.

The most easily digested of all foods, milk is especially recommended for the noon lunch for active boys and girls. Nehalem Valley creamery.—adv.

An error was made in last week's issue in a local reader by Donald Pringle advertising the Oregon Journal. The price should have been 65 cents a month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cates were called to Portland September 20 to the bedside of a son Wm. Cates who is ill with pneumonia following an operation for appendicitis.

If you are expecting guests over the week end, do not be embarrassed by the lack of milk, but order the necessary extra quarts of Nehalem Valley creamery. It is pasteurized.—adv.

Our customers tell us that our Angel Food cakes are beyond question the finest they have ever eaten. If you are skeptical there is one way to satisfy yourself, try one and when you do we are quite sure that you will agree with the rest. Vernonia Bakery.—adv.

The Girl Reserve class of the Church of Christ conducted a candy sale Saturday and were able to give $10 Sunday morning toward payment of the new church pews. Milk, the health food, should be a part of the noon day meal of every school boy and girl. For those who do not eat at home during mid-day, include a pint bottle of pasteurized milk in their lunch. Nehalem Valley creamery.—adv.

Teddy W. Leavitt and family went to Portland Monday to inspect the church pews soon to be installed in the Church of Christ. They stopped over night with relatives in Newberg.

The Parent-Teacher association will meet October 3 in the Washington school at 7:30 p.m. Miss Hickman, local delegate, will make a report on the national convention held at Oakland, Calif., recently.

The county court has had new boards placed on the footwalk on the bridge across Rock creek, the old boards having worn quite thin in places.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Roberts and son Verne, accompanied by Mrs. John Roberts and daughter Macie, arrived in Vernonia September 17, having motored from southern Idaho. Mrs. John Roberts and daughter will make their home here for some time. The rest of the party left Sunday morning for Pendleton.

Among those who were in Portland Tuesday to attend the meeting of the state highway commission in the interest of the Clatsop beach highway were Lester Sheeley, Wm. Pringle, Guy Mills, H. E. McGraw, Rev. G. W. Flumer, Earl Smith, Emil Messing, C. F. Hieber, M. Murray and Mike Miller.

When you were a kid don't you remember how you looked forward to a bite to eat when you got home from school. You were always hungry and the "bite to eat" usually consisted of a thick slice of bread spread with jam or jelly or the like. Don't deny your child this 4 o'clock meal. Nutritional experts and doctors recommend it as it provides the additional nourishment which the child needs. Mother's bread is a favorite with the children (not to mention grown-ups) so give them what they want—Mother's bread and plenty of it.—adv.

Change of Ownership

The Peoples Store, Vernona, formerly owned by R. A. Murray, has been sold to M. Murray & Company. A complete new stock of groceries and dry goods has been purchased, and the very best quality of both will be offered to our many Vernonia and Nehalem Valley patrons.

STORE CLOSED THURSDAY

WILL OPEN NEW DEPARTMENT

TWO ENTRANCES TO NEW STORE

For the purpose of taking inventory and arranging the new goods this store will be closed all day Thursday.

A department to be devoted exclusively to Ladies Furnishings will be added, with Mrs. Fred Tousley in charge

For the convenience of our patrons, M. Murray & Co. will have two entrances, the new one being on the street leading to the postoffice.

New styles in Ladies Dresses

YOUR CHOICE

$6.75, $10.75, $17.75, and $24.75

We will also show in the new department a complete and up-to-date assortment of LADIES' COATS, SILK NIGHTGOWNS, SILK UNDERWEAR and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Store Opens Friday Morning

Although it was originally our plan to move the store to Seaside, where space had been rented, that plan is now discarded. We have signed a new lease here which materially reduces our overhead, a saving which we promise will be passed on to our patrons.
