Football Game Saturday In Rainier Expected To Be A Hard Contest

(By Clarence Wardle)
 The next scheduled football game of the season will be played at Rainier Saturday. Though there is little chance to bring about a comparison of Rainier's team with Vernonia's, it is believed the game will be close and hard fought.
 Rainier has three lettermen in the backfield, and they have shifted two backfield men of previous years to end positions, which is thought to mean that they will play a passing game. Rainier has a new football mentor this year in Coach Harrison.
 The Rainier game will be a good struggle, in the opinion of those who have watched the records of both teams. It is expected that a large crowd of rooters from Vernonia will attend the game there Saturday.

Two sophomores, Howard Lee and Kenneth Price, were complimented for their work in the play at the carnival.

SENIOR NEWS

(By Ralph Peck)
 Gilbert Bergerson, star left half on Vernonia's football team, and Veldon Parker received leg injuries during a practice scrimmage with the second team recently. They will not be out of the next game, however.

FRESHMAN NEWS

(By Larry Marshall)
 Bruce Cummings and Kenneth Bell returned to school recently after several weeks absence.
 Jack Marshall was in the carnival play at the high school Friday evening.
 Luella Williams and Gladys Carrick hiked to the home of Gladys' sister recently, reporting a pleasant trip.
 Luella Williams and Florence Stubbs hiked to Sheeley's grove Saturday. Returning home the two girls found that they had left or lost a tam. They then hiked one-half mile past Treharne where they found the tam, and returned home, covering a distance of 15 miles in all.

Annual High School Carnival Attended By Large Crowd Friday

(By Ethel Tonsley)
 The annual high school carnival given Friday was well attended by a large crowd of both students and town people. The carnival was given to raise money with which to pay the debt of the school student body and $203.80 was the total receipts.

At 8 p. m. the program began with three selections played by the high school orchestra. Next the glee club sang two songs, after which there were a reading by Ethel Tonsley and a musical reading by Thelma Spencer.

A play, "Spreading the News," was then given. The cast was: Howard Lee, Barthley Fallon; Della Cline, Mrs. Fallon; Jack Ozmert, Jack Smith; Ida Mae Hawkins, Mrs. Tarpey; Ralph Peck, magistrate; Kenneth Price, Joe Muldoon; Louise Miller, Mrs. Tulley; Russell Peck, Shown Early; Archie Adams, Tim Casey; Jack Marshall, James Ryan. Miss P. Perce was the coach of the play.

After the program, pie, candy, ice cream, hot dogs, etc., were sold at various booths. There were also several side shows, consisting of an art gallery, magic, fortune telling, Punch and Judy, fish pond, and nigger baby skill show.
 The attendance was said to have been larger than at any of the preceding carnivals.

Players Attend Game at Portland

Most of the football team attended the U. of O.-U. of C. football game in Portland Saturday, with the object of particularly studying the styles of play of the two strong coast elevens and learning more about the game.—C.W.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

(By Charlotte Green)
 Phoebe Greenman went to Portland Saturday to attend the Oregon-California game. She came back much disappointed.

Friday night at the carnival the hot dog stand was operated by four sophomores: Neal Bush, Charlotte Green, Phoebe Greenman and Bodie Hieber. They reported a good sale.

Alberta De Rock went to Portland Sunday to hear Eddie Peabody the great banjo player.

Merle Mills, a sophomore, helped serve pie and coffee at the carnival.

Marjorie Kelly and Violet Phelps went on an enjoyable hike up to the old Spencer place recently.

There were several juniors in the play given at the carnival. They were: Della Cline, Archie Adams, Louise Miller, and Russell Peck. Helen Spofford entered the junior class Monday. She has been going to school in Hillsboro.

Sulfur applied in late fall or winter and harrowed in during the renovation of Oregon alfalfa meadows gives good results. Sulfur applied now will have time to oxidize and become more fully effective for the coming crop season explains the experiment station.

Foul growth in western Oregon alfalfa may be successfully controlled states the experiment station, by fall renovation where the land is wet in early spring. Spring renovation sets the young growth back a week to 10 days.

Irrigation laterals may more easily be cleaned out, and wooden systems repaired or replaced with more permanent ones before the ground is frozen, reports the Oregon experiment station.
