

To Talk Into Millions of Homes

THE voice of Herbert Hoover will be heard in millions of homes when the Republican presidential candidate desires to lay important issues of campaign before the voters of the country. As Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Hoover has made a number of radio addresses. Plain, important facts constitute his most eloquent utterances and his voice is dispassionate but convincing.

German Lines to Use Powerful Fog Lights

German railroads are experimenting with fog lights, such as are already used on Belgian lines and supplied by a German producer of electrical apparatus. Belgium was forced to use fog signal lights due to the heavy fogs rolling in from the sea.

At certain times in the year and in low-lying districts German railroads have experienced long delays from fogs, so it is considered that trains will be kept on schedule and accidents avoided if fog signal lights are installed. The lights are high candle power electric lights, placed about 10 feet above the tracks. The reflectors are about the size of a saucer. The electric beam is much stronger than the usual gas light or oil lamp, and pierces the fog. Two yellow lights mean stop and two green mean the line is free. An infra-red headlight is also being made the subject of experiments. If this proves practical the locomotive engineer will watch a photo-electric plate on which the objects caught by the infra-red rays will be reproduced. As the infra-red rays pierce darkness and fog the plate should show the track ahead.

Literary Quacks

Literature has her quacks no less than medicine, and they are divided into two classes; those who have erudition without genius, and those who have volubility without depth: we shall get second-hand sense from the one, and original nonsense from the other.—Colton.

NOTED CLERIC FLAYS BIGOTRY

Dr. Henry Van Dyke Declares Defeat of Smith Would Be "National Calamity."

ASSAILS SECRET PROPAGANDA

Warning American voters that sinister and secret forces are threatening the very foundation upon which our Government is built, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, eminent educator, Presbyterian clergyman, author and diplomat has issued, from his home at Seal Harbor, Me., a ringing appeal for religious tolerance.

Dr. Van Dyke who holds degrees from Princeton, Harvard, Yale, Pennsylvania University, Union College and Oxford University is perhaps one of the best-known of living writers and clergymen. In a formal statement, he said:

"At the present moment there is on foot in these United States a widespread cabal to keep one of the candidates for the Presidency from election because he is a member of the Catholic Church. The other candidate has handsomely disavowed any personal share in the sentiments or arguments which characterize this cabal. This is much to his credit.

"But unfortunately he can not, or at least he does not, restrain and check the pernicious activity of his supporters, who are convinced that the end of a victory for their party justifies any means which they employ to secure it.

"Hence, if their candidate should be elected, he would owe his election in part to the religious prejudice and anti-Catholic enmity which the cabalists have stirred up and marshalled to the polls. This would be a misfortune for him, and a calamity for our country as the home and citadel of religious liberty.

Most Important Issue

"The mere prospect of such a calamity ought to move the hearts of true Americans and honest Christians with dismay, and awaken their minds to serious thought and earnest action in defense of that real freedom of conscience which is the hard-won crowning glory of America and the dearest jewel of Christianity.

"That seems to me far and away the most important question before the country today,—a question not to be answered by heated appeals to partisan allegiance,—a question not raised, thank God, by either of the honorable candidates for the Presidency, but a burning question thrust upon the conscience of every American voter by the overt fulminations and covert whisperings of those who seek to defeat one of the candidates because he is a Catholic.

"My Protestantism is obedient to Him who said, 'Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's.' My Protestantism, which is hereditary from the school of William of Orange, tells me that 'conscience is God's province.' My Americanism, which is a stout growth of eight native-born generations, tells me that to vote against a man because of his church-membership is to be untrue to the central faith of the Republic.

"Freedom of conscience is the greatest thing at stake in this campaign. Hundreds of thousands of voters fail to realize it.

"It is time to blow a trumpet to awaken the sleepers. The Palladium of the Republic is attacked by secret and open foes. It is in danger, trembling in its marble hall. The spiritual call to arms goes out to every man and woman. Defend the religious Liberty of America!"

BLAINE ADVISES BOLT

Republican Senator in Wisconsin Declares Voters Must End Corruption; Says Friends Are for Smith.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.,—Republican leaders, disheartened by the tremendous reaction to the recent speech of United States Senator John J. Blaine, in which he bitterly criticized the last two Republican administrations and lauded Governor Smith, have practically given up all hope of swinging Wisconsin to Hoover.

Senator Blaine, a former Governor of Wisconsin, and one of the State's popular Republican leaders, declared in an address at Burlington:

"I have no doubt that my friends and supporters are going to vote for Governor Smith. We must condemn Republican silence on the scandals of the Harding Administration as an accessory after the fact. The thing to do is to end corruption by voting for Governor Smith."

THIS FARM PAYS

A VIEW of the 1280 acre farm of Herbert Hoover. Operations on Mr. Hoover's farm are conducted on the same high engineering plane as all his other enterprises. The entire acreage is irrigated and highly cultivated for big crops of quality productions. The land was worthless nine years ago when he bought it and was wrested from nature. Every variety of product such as potatoes, cotton, peaches, grapes, onions, figs, etc. is produced. Mr. Hoover constantly checks over with his manager, a university graduate farm expert who has the practical knowledge to go with his scientific education.

Plan Week-End Trips For Summer Session at University of Oregon

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.—Automobile trips to attractive outing spots in different parts of Oregon will give out-of-state students at the University of Oregon summer sessions this year an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the beauties of this region, it is announced by Marion McClain, recreational director. The attractions of the state are already used to lure prospective students, and the illustrated booklets sent out contain many photographs in color.

Five week-end trips are planned for the students. The first of these will be over the famed Columbia River highway by way of the Mt. Hood loop. This is expected to prove especially popular with students in the Portland session, although many will also go up from Eugene for the outing.

The McKenzie river country, in both Lane and Deschutes counties, will be the scene of one week-end trip. Crater Lake, Oregon Caves, and a beach resort will be objectives of other trips.

In addition to auto trips, a hike is being planned for the South Sister of the Cascade range. Shorter hikes around Eugene will also be enjoyed. The excellent roads on all trips planned are being described to the students, and it is expected that many people in the Middle West will drive out here to attend the sessions.

Yam Not Sweet Potato

Yams are a kind of sweet potato a variety of sweet potatoes, but all sweet potatoes are not yams. The real yam is deeper in color, sweeter and more watery than the ordinary sweet potato.

"I shall vote for Governor Smith because I believe his election would end conditions which are endangering the future of the younger generation."

DANIELS REBUKES STRATON

RALEIGH, N. C.—Rebuking Dr. John Roach Straton for expressing the belief that "my old friend," Josephus Daniels, would bolt the Democratic party, the former Secretary of the Navy has again emphatically declared, in a letter to the New York pastor, that he will support Governor Smith. Mr. Daniels wrote:

"I believe I can serve the cause of prohibition and temperance better by remaining in my party than by supporting Mr. Hoover, who sat in the Cabinet with Harding with all the corruption and with Coolidge with all the favoritism—the two administrations, which, by flagrant failure to enforce the law or to give it legal and moral support, have done more to harm prohibition than its open foes."
