Oppression Not Peace
I am a man of peace. God knows how I love peace; but I hope I shall never be such a coward as to mistake oppression for peace.—Kossuth.

Retort Uncourteous
When a man was excusing some recently by saying "One must live," old Doctor Johnson retorted, "I'm not so sure of it."

Actions Alone Matter
It is not the mere station of life that stamps the value on us, but the manner in which we act our part.—Schiller.

Made by Conditions
Expediency is a law of nature. The camel is a wonderful animal, but the desert made the camel.—Beaconsfield.

Great University
Yale university has 142 buildings, besides 20 dormitories and a library which contains 1,700,000 volumes.

Not All Evergreens
There are several cone-bearing trees that are not evergreens, notably the larch and the bald cypress.

Wild Mating
Deer, elk and moose mate yearly. The deer and elk are polygamists and the moose is monogamous.

Wide Variety of Shades
The modern mosaicists of Venice have 40,000 varying shades to use in the creation of mosaics.

Finis
"What is the longest sentence on record?" Imprisonment for life.—London Tit Bits.

In Terms of Bridge
At cards when you are dealt the ace, king, queen, the two, three and four spot, you discard the two spot. But when the Lord deals you the same sort of a hand you probably discard the ace, king and queen.—Woman's Home Companion.

Not Always Fatal
According to hospital records of the World War, there are some interesting cases in which soldiers lived with bullets in their hearts. One soldier lived two months with a bullet in the interior of his heart.

"Monkey Biz"

Going down Bridge street the other day, munching on a sweet bun, we heard some sarcastic remark, followed by a horse laugh, as we passed the Safeway store, about "There goes Ben Franklin."

We know that Ben Franklin walked the street of Philadelphia many years ago with leaves of bread under each arm and some sweet lady, whom he later married, laughed at him.

No doubt Ben wanted to get square with the lady for laughing at him so he married her, going to get square with Al. going to get square with Al. Ritchey?

Many a guy has looked down a hole to discover disaster, especially those looking in the hole for an ace and seeing a deuce.

Often wondered what Dave Marshall looked like without a cigar poked at a 45 degree angle out of his face.

We have been reprimanded for giving publicity to Wilburn Charlesworth in last week's Monkey Biz, not for being in that column, but for spelling his name wrong. It's Wilburn, not Wilbur and Wilburn is Vernonia's foremost inventor.

Headlines in next week's 'Buzzard': "Kullander Reduces." Easy folks, reduces prices of finger bowls.

Since having talks each night at his show, Jack Bush means about no one patronizing his crying room. Jack installed a horn, so that mamma's with crying infants can hear the talkies in the crying room, but mothers insist that few will know the difference when their kids bawl.

Wearing pajamas has one advantage especially for the 'coming home late guys' who can, if caught, pretend insomnia.

Emil, our postmaster, is the envy of all the local robins. Everyone see Emil's red shirt. One more payment and it's his.

Clarence Nance, claims the distinction of having perfected an invention for drinking oyster cocktails through a straw.

Earl Smith, Vernonia's fire chief still plays with that new fire siren. Earl thinks Santa bought it for him.

Good Breeding First
The scholar without good breeding is a pedant; the philosopher, a cynic; the soldier, a brute; and every man disagreeable.—Chester field.

Ear Meanings
It is said that those whose ears are small and lie close to the head are cautious, careful in money matters and have logical minds.
