Pound Cake

1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
5 eggs
2 cups flour
Work butter until creamy, using the hand, and add sugar, gradually, while beating constantly; then add eggs one at a time, beating vigorously between the addition of each. When the mixture is of a creamy consistency, fold in the flour, and turn into a buttered and floured cake pan. Bake one hour in a slow oven.

Boiled Spinach

Remove roots, carefully pick over (discarding wilted leaves), and wash in several waters to be sure that it is free from all sand. Put in a stewpan, allow to heat gradually, and boil twenty-five minutes, or until tender, in its own juice. If spinach is very young, do not boil but melt it carefully. Drain thoroughly, chop, reheat, and season with butter, salt and pepper. Mound on a serving dish and garnish with slices of hard-boiled eggs and toast points.

Veal Birds

Wipe slices of veal from leg, cut as thinly as possible, then remove bone, skin, and fat. Pound until 1/4 inch thick and cut in pieces four inches long by two inches wide, each piece making a bird. Chop trimmings of meat, adding for every three birds a piece of fat salt pork one inch square and one-fourth inch thick; pork also to be chopped. Add to trimmings and pork one half their measure of fine cracker crumbs, and season highly with salt, pepper, lemon juice and onion juice. Moisten with beaten egg and hot water or stock. Spread each piece with thin layer of mixture. Roll, and fasten with skewers. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and fry in hot butter until a golden brown. Put in stewpan, add cream to half cover meat, cook slowly twenty minutes or until tender. Serve on small pieces of toast, straining cream remaining in pan over birds and toast, and garnish with parsley.
