Butter Scotch Pie

4 teaspoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup cold milk
1 cup scalded milk
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup brown sugar
2 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Scald milk, add cornstarch and salt well mixed with the cold milk. Add butter, sugar, well-beaten egg yolks. Continue to cook until thickened. Add vanilla. Cool slightly and put in a cake pie shell.

Noodles

1 egg
1/2 teaspoon salt
Flour

Beat egg slightly, add salt, and flour enough to make very stiff dough; knead, toss on a slightly floured board, and roll thinly as possible, which may be as thin as paper. Cover with towel, and set aside for twenty minutes; then cut in fancy shapes, using sharp knife or vegetable cutter; or the thin sheet may be rolled like a jelly roll, cut in slices as thinly as possible, and pieces unrolled. Dry, and when needed cook twenty minutes in boiling salted water; drain and add to soup.

Deerfoot Potatoes

Wash and pare potatoes of uniform size. Remove from each two portions, using an apple corer. Fill cavities thus made with sausages and insert rounds of potatoes to conceal sausages. Put in a pan and bake in a hot oven until potatoes are soft.

Mixed Turkey

To one cup cold roast turkey, cut in small dice, add one-third cup soft stale bread crumbs. Make one cup sauce, using two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, and one cup stock (obtained by cooking bones and skin of a roast turkey). Season with salt, pepper, and onion juice. Heat turkey and bread crumbs in sauce. Serve on small pieces of toast, and garnish with poached eggs and toast points.

Ways of Using Left-Over Turkey

Make one cup of sauce, using two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt, few grains of pepper and one cup of stock (obtained by cooking bones and skin of a roast turkey). Cut remnants of cold roast turkey in small pieces; there should be about one and one-half cups. Sprinkle bottom of buttered baking dish with seasoned cracker crumbs, add turkey meat, pour over sauce, and sprinkle with buttered cracker crumbs. Bake in a hot oven until crumbs are uniform size. Remove from each
