Auxiliary Dance April 12

The dance which will be held by the American Legion Auxiliary April 12 at the Legion hall is planned to be another one of unusual entertainment.

Mrs. H. E. McGraw, Mrs. C. Henderson, Mrs. L. Baker and Mrs. H. Kearns are the members of the committee chosen to make this dance the success of the one held a few weeks ago.

MANY HIKE SUNDAY

Ideal Spring Weather Lures For Long Hikes on Roads.

Several hiking parties were seen on the highways about town Sunday—out toward Pittsburg, the Pebble Creek road, Forest Grove and Rock Creek road.

Many groups of the high school students were seen, some Camp Fire girls and older folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Roberts, Miss Macle Roberts and Glenn Hawkins hiked toward Sunset camp on the Timber road and striking back into the timber made a six-mile circle, returning to the camp.

"We saw falls at least 75 feet high," said Mrs. Roberts, "and were on trails where only pack horses were used."

Rainbow Girls Hold Ceremonies

The ceremonies celebrating the second anniversary of the Order of Rainbow Girls will be held at the Christian church Sunday evening at 7:30.

A special sermon by Rev. F. Claude Stephens will be given for the occasion.

Members of the Rainbow Girls, Masons and Eastern Star are requested to meet at the Masonic temple at 7 o'clock so they can proceed to the church in a body.

Friends Gather

At the Home Of Miss Krause

Surprising Miss Pearl Krause on the occasion of her birthday anniversary last Monday evening, several of her friends gathered at Miss Krause's apartment and enjoyed an evening of cards and general merriment.

A light lunch was served later in the evening. The guests included Misses Florence Santee, Melba Laramore, Margaret Bennett, Ruth Taylor, Myrtle Pye and Marie Kirkpatrick.

All members are urged to attend.

7 GARDENING REMINDERS

Tips Given by Prominent Growers at Garden Club Meeting.

Never use animal fertilizers on delphinium. Steamed bone meal carefully dug into the soil around the roots is the only fertilizer necessary. Of course, the soil should be friable.

Use the hoe more and the hose less. This is very important information to the Vernoniaites, who have to watch their water bills.

Peonies should have no water at all. The blooms may not be quite as large but are of better substance and will keep far better as a cut flower.

Never use animal fertilizer near bulbs or lilies. If it is necessary to make the soil loose

Trillium Wild Flowers Can Be Transplanted When in Full Bloom Should be Handled Carefully

(By Georgina Lappe)

Trillium or Easter lilies as the children call them are in bloom now by the thousands. Every day one sees numbers of children with huge bouquets of them. Perhaps they are unaware that in a few years there may be none of these early spring flowers to pick. The flowers instead of being picked are often pulled up by the roots. At the base of the stem is a bulb and if the flower is broken off properly new flowers will come up each year. Then again, the lilies after the bloom is gone bear seeds and these in turn will be flowers in a year or two.

One can transplant a few for the garden when the flower is in bloom if care is taken. Use a garden spade, twine and newspapers. Dig about six inches from the blooms to get plenty of the soil. The bulb sometimes grows a foot deep. Fold the clump in the newspaper and tie securely with twine.

Plant in Shade.

They should be planted in the

and friable use a lot of well rotted leaf mold.

Buying cheap bulbs is an expense in the long run, as they are inferior in many ways and often harbor diseases.

One reason why different varieties of flowers are sometimes difficult to grow on the O.-A. hill is the prevalence of resin in the soil from the fir which formerly grew there. The majority of flowers and bulbs love a sweet soil and not acid soil which is caused by the fir needles and resin.

Use nature as a pattern to landscape your home garden. Study natural plantings and you will never go wrong.

Study Club to Meet Cole Home

The Study club will meet at the M. D. Cole home on C street next Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. W. Wolff will have "Social Progress" as the subject for discussion for the afternoon.

Bridge Club Meet Culver Home

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club will be guests at the W. R. Culver home next Tuesday afternoon at one of their regular bi-monthly meetings.

RIVERVIEW

Miss Minerva Thompson of Rockaway was visiting friends in Riverview this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mills and daughter Leone and little son Mickey of Waldport came to Riverview Monday for a visit with Mrs. Mills' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall. They returned Wednesday.

Clarence Fowler, while cutting light poles, cut his leg badly last Thursday.

Shingle Mill Starts

The Johnston-McGraw shingle mill started Wednesday after being closed nearly two weeks.

Among those who attended the opening of the Rainier-Longview bridge Saturday were: Mrs. Sarah Spencer, S. V. Malmsten and sons Leonard and Harvard, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cameron,

Good for Watchmakers

An Eighteenth century fashion in France was the accumulation of clocks and watches. In Louis XV's reign, two watches were the minimum carried by any gentleman.

Rev. Jonathan Galois an American Baptist missionary, invented the Jarrkissa in 1871. He was in Yokohama at the time and devised it as a vehicle in which his invalid wife might take the air.

Party at McGregor Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McGregor who live on the St. Helens highway near Riverview were pleasantly surprised by a group of young folks Friday evening.

Dancing was the feature of the evening's entertainment, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Hutchins, Misses Grace Sell, Allie Simmons, Edna Mitcham; Messrs. Ernest Brooks, Carl Casperson and Herman Dickson.

GAS USE IS UNSAFE

Women Burned While Cleaning Clothes at Home.

Time and again housewives are told by the oil companies selling gasoline not to use this product for cleaning purposes, especially silk.

When the fabric is rubbed together it causes friction and that in turn causes a spark.

Two women at Chehalis, Wn., were burned last week while cleaning clothes with gasoline.

There is a cleaning fluid on the market which is inflammable and just as reasonable in price as gasoline. It is sold by all the oil companies.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The Sunday school will open at 9:45 a.m. with a special service. The pastor will preach at 11 a.m. on "The Making of a Church."

Young peoples meeting at 6:30 p.m.

There will be a special Boy Scout service at 7:30. All Boy Scouts are urged to be present and all parents of boys are especially invited.

The young people will have their business and social meeting in the hall Friday, April 4.

Mrs. E. Condit

Elected Camp Fire Guardian

The new Camp Fire, which was organized last month, have elected Mrs. Edwin Condit as their guardian.

They have chosen Scheschnyjak as their group name. Their second meeting was held Tuesday at which plans were made for a hike and a wieners roast to follow.

The members of the new group are: Rhoda Bell, Alvina Shively, Erma Thompson, Delpha Killian, Lorraine Harper, Florence Austin and Helen Brimmer.

Gives Talk At Garden Club

MEETING HELD AT GREENMAN RESIDENCE.

Prominent Growers of Forest Grove Attend Meeting.

Three prominent growers of Forest Grove, each a master in his line, were guest speakers at the Vernonia Garden club at their regular meeting at the Greenman residence on the O.-A. hill Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Isabel Warrens gave a short talk on planning an individual garden and also described and explained the cultivation of lilies of which she and her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warrens, are extensive growers near Forest Grove.

Mrs. C. R. Wagner, who it is said raises some of the finest delphiniums in the west, held an open forum and all questions asked by the members on the raising of delphiniums and other perennials were explained.

Mrs. Robt. Warrens, who with her husband and a prominent Portland florist, have at present 23 acres of narcissi under cultivation near Forest Grove, explained the characteristics of six different types of narcissi or daffodils which she brought with her. Fertilizers, care and quality of bulbs purchased were stressed by her.

A large bouquet of these spring beauties were presented to each member and guest present.

Sewing Clubs Has Picnic

Friday evening the Seven Sewing Sisters (Sewing II club) held a picnic near the Mile bridge. Those present were Rose Smith, Rhoda Bell, Florence Austin, Ruth Page Simmons, Marjorie Holtham, Mildred Walters and Miss Hilt.

Who started the move...for a deeper Channel to the Sea?

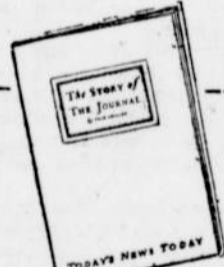

Journal history is a story of achievement for Oregon—a record of many worthwhile things accomplished in the public interest. Take the development of Portland as a port—one of the great world ports. The Journal played an important role in that, arousing public consciousness to the importance of removing the bar at the mouth of the Columbia and dredging a deeper channel. Then that most important fight for the agricultural and business interests of the state—the 10 per cent freight differential. The Journal frantically led the fight that led up to the order granting the lower rate. It waged the historic pure milk campaign, the battle for more bridges across the Willamette and the Columbia, and a score of other constructive campaigns that have helped to bring Oregon into the front rank of Western states. Today it is fighting to raise the standard of Oregon butter and thereby widen the market. Always The Journal is constructive, progressive, doing things. Read it every day!
