Mrs. Estella Jones

Winema grange held its social meeting Sept. 15. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duncan and Mrs. J. C. Moran of Vernonia grange were present. Mr. Condit spoke on the production of the comedy play, touching some of its side lights, which Vernonia grange members put on at the Columbia county fair, and it was decided to have the play put on at Birkenfeld in the near future. Agricultural chairman reported that our Agricultural agent, Geo. A. Nelson, would be with us October 6.

The fire insurance agent reports that all special assessments have been paid up to date, either in full or part. A lengthy program was enjoyed lecture hour. Roll call being our favorite magazine, followed with other numbers. Next meeting roll call will be the best method of storing apples. The home economics committee served lunch of home-made rolls and butter, canned fruit and coffee. Games were played after lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Narver and Miss Houghton, the school faculty, were visitors for the social hour.

Mrs. Narver, principal of the grade school, took a trip around the Mt. Hood loop over the weekend. She reports a most delightful time. A touch of frost had turned the maple leaves to red and gold, giving a hint of the coming winter.

Miss Houghton had one new pupil in her primary room. A small printing press has been purchased and the little folks are reading their own little sentences in print.

Walter Carl and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Carl, and Mr. Olson, who is living at the Walter Carl home, made the loop around by Astoria and Hebo and Salmonberry cut-off last Sunday, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Guy Bellingham took a couple of Buster camp ladies to Clatskanie for medical treatment Thursday.

Mrs. Annie B. Johnston and family, who have lived resided here for the past 10 years, have moved to her ranch at Vesper. Everett Johnston, who has been on the ranch, has moved on John Johnston's, his father's, place.

Birkenfeld and Vesper communities gave a reception Wednesday evening in the high school gymnasium for the new teachers of Birkenfeld, Vesper and Deer creek. Mr. Bryant, high school prof., Mrs. Narver, grade school principal, Miss Houghton, primary teacher, Miss Campbell of Deer Creek and Miss Wilson of Vesper. Robert Berg, chairman of the school board, gave the address of welcome following by a program of readings and music. Later refreshments were served followed by playing games.

Hugh M. Jones of Birkenfeld and Frank Wooden of Jewell were in Astoria on Wednesday on business. Mrs. Jones accompanied Mr. Jones as far as Jewell, where she spent the day with Mrs. Frank Wooden.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones went to Clatskanie, Mr. Jones going to see the doctor about an injury he received at the Nevstils shops recently.

Hugh Jones took a veal to Clatskanie Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd Lousignont of Vesper are the happy parents of a new son born September 22 at the Smith home on Clatskanie mountain.

Mrs. Dan Berg, who has been at the Clatskanie hospital the past six weeks with a broken leg was brought home Saturday much better but will not be able to be out of bed for a few weeks. Louie Nystrom is seriously ill at his home in Vesper.
