COMING?

Something's going to happen on the twenty-first day of April, next Friday, that you can't afford to miss—namely, the senior play, "The House of a Thousand Thrills," which will be presented in the Washington grade school auditorium by the senior class of '33 of Vernonia high school.

"The House of a Thousand Thrills" is a mystery thriller of unusual interest. It is composed of a prologue and three acts, and was written by Leslie Chadwick Browning.

COLLEGE EDUCATION

Everybody knows that a college education is important, even essential, for success—that is, real success. Also everybody should be working for success, otherwise what's the use of living; why go to school at all? How can persons without ambitions get by? How can they enjoy life? How can they bear to do what little they do? Such people do get by but there the good news ends, because that's the extent of their ambitions. They cannot get through the grades and high school, let alone college.

With ambitious persons things appear in directly the opposite light. Life means something to them, for they look ahead with the knowledge that every bit of learning picked up is money in the purse and that every step of progress leads to success. These people understand that college or its equivalent—is a necessary step of progress without which they cannot proceed on the highway to success. They realize that a college education, although not a necessity in securing a position, is an added advantage in this age of specialists.

SENIORS DECIDE NOT TO HAVE BANQUET

At a meeting last Wednesday the senior class decided not to have the annual banquet on account of lack of finances. The Parent-Teachers' association, who have formerly given the banquet could not give it because of a lack of funds in that organization. It was suggested that the parents of members of the class help in the banquet. The class decided against this however.

CARDS GIVEN OUT

The report cards for the second six weeks period of the year were given out Tuesday.

WEINER ROAST IS HELD BY SENIORS

Thursday night, April 6, was the date of the senior weiner roast at Big Eddy. Those attending met before the grade school and left for Big Eddy about seven o'clock.

As it was dark by the time of arrival no games were played. A big fire was immediately built and benches placed around it. Sticks for roasting the weiners were cut by those having jackknives and the roast was on. The buns gave out soon and the weiners soon afterwards. About 18 seniors attended. The meeting adjourned about nine o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEntire chaperoned the event.

PICTURES ARE TO BE TAKEN IN TWO WEEKS

Pictures of the members of the senior class will be taken in two weeks by Mr. Coffey of Portland.

PLAY CAST STARTS REHEARSALS OF PLAY

The cast of the "House of a Thousand Thrills," started Monday afternoon on rehearsals over the entire play. Practice on the final act was completed last Friday.

The play will be presented at Washington grade school, April 21.

Admission prices have been set at 10, 15 and 25 cents.

SOHPHOMORES HAVE MARSHMALLOW ROAST

The sophomores had a marshmallow roast last Tuesday night. Each person attending was required to bring a dime's worth of marshmallows.

JUNIORS TO HAVE PROM

The Junior Prom will be given, decided the junior class at a meeting Monday noon.

Former opposition to the prom died down and the class decided that it would be given. Opposition, however, is still prevalent as to the date for the event.

HI LIFE . . . Read It and Weep

Hi pals! Spring is here—and there. What we should have is a skiing party. The birds are singing in the rain. School work becomes more pleasant as the days roll by—oh yeah! Amidst all the worries of spring and April showers the Major (Shampoo the magician) has been doing his duty. The Major hears all, sees all but knows nothing at all—stop your boisterous cheering! On his list this week we have:

Art Nanson displaying his artistic talent on gorgeous maps for his history work . . . Junior Aldrich taking a nap . . . Edgar Crawford carrying a decided smirk on his map . . . Joy Bush, alias "The Rabbit", munching a carrot . . . Clarence Lindsay eating three-fourths of a huge onion at the weiner roast. What a man, what a man . . . Melville Malmsten reclining in his seat . . . Roberta Anderson and Doris Timm getting tangled up in their fingers as they twist it about their fingers . . . Mildred Nutt attempting in vain to assume a wise look befitting her age . . . Harvey Edens doing great things in the senior room. Ahem!

The juniors having a fine time wrangling among themselves . . . Bill Lumm working industriously up on his English. Bravo! . . . Ed Roediger spreading good cheer about the junior room . . . Thomas Osborne, in a class all by himself, demonstrating his mathematical genius.

WHAT THE CLASSES ARE DOING

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

THIRTY THREE BOYS TURN OUT FOR TRACK

Thirty-three boys are now turning out for track with the number increasing each night. This is one ### of the largest turnouts for several years.

Cross country running is being practiced to get in good condition for the regular season which will open in the near future with a dual meet with Vernonia. An inter-class cross country race will be run Friday afternoon. Eight boys from each class will run over a course which is about a mile and a half long.

The men that are back from last year's squad are Draper, Jones, Coles, Graves, Thompson and Barkman.

Those turning out are Brown, Barkman, Coles, Burke, Thompson, Draper, G. Johnson, E. Johnson, E. Bryant, Jones, Olsen, Eilertsen, Erickson, S. ### "BOSWELL SISTERS" ENTERTAIN C. H. S.

The "Boswell Sisters of C. H. S. entertained the students at the second assembly sponsored for the school spirit week by groups 1, 2 and 3 last Wednesday.

The "Boswell Sisters" of C. H. S. are a singing team of four girls: Ada Enbusk, Doris Shoemaker, Ethel Graham and Meredith Yost. The girls started the program with a song for which the girls had composed the words. Meredith played the accompaniment on the piano. Fay Wood assisted the girls in the encore by accompanying them with the guitar.

The next number on the program was a song by Fay and June Wood with Fay playing the guitar.

The R. O. H. girls put on the skit, "A Model Schoolroom." It was a short comedy that provided plenty of amusement for the students.

Mr. Riggs led the students in singing school songs.

ENTHUSED MEETING OF STUDENT BODY HELD

The most active student body meeting of the year was held Friday, March 31.

Article 11 and 12 were read and discussed. After a great deal of debating it was finally decided to leave the discussion of adopting a standard ring for the high school to the freshmen and sophomores.

Two girls, Viola Hokenson, negative, and Irene Lehto, affirmative, had a formal debate on the question: Resolved, that school spirit should not be shown outside of school. The negative side was victorious.
