Advertising Aids Business Revival

NEW YORK .- Aggressive concerns are expanding business by effective advertising despite depressed business conditions, de-clared A. W. Diller, advertising counsel, at a bankers' conference here recently.

"Is 1933 a good year in which to advertire?" Mr. Diller asked. "Yes, if 1933 is a good year to stay in business, to reinforce the public's confidence in you, to put more business on the books. There is new business to be had today and aggressive companies are getting it. But new business will come in only if you go out for it. Advertising certainly goes out for it

"Will people read newspaper advertisements these days? They will read anything that interests them. There are plenty of present-day arguments for business. Instead of asking 'How often should newspaper advertising appear,' it would be better to ask 'How often is it wise these days to neglect contacts with pos-
