DOROTHY RATKIE AND HARVARD MALMSTEN MARRY

The marriage of Dorothy Ratkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ratkie of Everett, Wash., and Harvard Malmsten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Malmsten of Vernonia, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, April 7, in Sedro Wooley, Wash.

The marriage service was read in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom by the Rev. M. Heverling, who was a pastor of the Vernonia Evangelical church many years ago, and who has been a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Malmsten since before their marriage.

The bride was charming in an attractive blue suit with hat and accessories to match.

The young couple will reside in Vernonia where they have many friends, both having been school mates in the Vernonia high school of which they are graduates.

Mrs. Malmsten is a Vernonia girl, as she lived in the River-view district with her parents until they moved to Everett last fall.

Mrs. Sidney Malmsten, mother of the groom, and Leonard Malmsten, his brother, accompanied him north for the wedding, and on the return trip which occupied two days the party visited relatives in Seattle and Longview.

RAINBOW PROGRAM INCLUDES PLAY

An interesting program including a play which was prepared by members of Nehalem assembly, Order of Rainbow, was presented Monday night following the regular business meeting of the assembly.

The play, entitled "The Duchess Breezes In," was presented by a cast as follows: Jeanne Hughes, Duchess of Burgundy; Dorris Anderson, Duke of Burgundy; Thelma Lincoln, Lady Vera; Roberta Williams, Earl Rejoinder; Edith Anderson, Situation; Alice Hoffman and Nadine Aldrich, orchestra; Lola Mae Smith, announcer.

Jeanne Hughes and Maxine Bollinger gave a piano duet and Alice Baker sang a solo.

The committee which arranged the program included Lola Mae Smith, Jeanne Hughes and Geraldine Cason.

The play was such a success that the mother advisor, Mrs. L. H. Dewey, requested that it be repeated at some future time when guests are present.
