

Hunting Season Limits Fixed by State Game Com.

Opening and Closing Dates Are Announced

Opening and closing dates for hunting this year were announced recently by the Oregon State Game commission as follows:

BEAR — Open season entire year except in Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties where open season is from November 1 to November 30.

BUCK DEER, with forked horns — Open season September 20 to October 25, both dates inclusive. Bag limit, 2 Columbia blacktail deer or 1 mule deer, with the requirement that both deer tags must be affixed to the mule deer.

BULL ELK, having horns — Open season November 5 to November 11, both dates inclusive. Open territory, all of Baker county except that portion lying southwest of the John Day highway; Wallowa county north of the base line and west of the Imnaha river; all of Union and Umatilla counties except approximately 20,400 acres in the Conklin Springs area and known as the Mt. Emily Game refuge; that portion of Grant county lying north of the Middle Fork of the John Day river and east of the Pendleton-John Day highway.

(Bag limit, one bull elk with horns.) Foregoing regulations for open season for elk were determined as the results of surveys and recommendations of the United States Forest Service and are for the purpose of reducing the herds in the areas declared open to hunting 10 per cent of the estimated elk population to prevent continued over-grazing on concentrated areas.

SILVER GRAY SQUIRRELS — Open season September 15 to October 20 in Baker, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Curry, Gilliam, Grant, Jackson, Jefferson, Josephine, Klamath, Lincoln, Malheur, Morrow, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa and Wheeler counties; provided there is an open season the entire year in Clackamas, Marion, Yamhill, Washington, Benton, Polk, Linn, Douglas and Lane counties.

ST. HELENS — The value of Western Rye grass as an emergency crop that will make hay the same year it is planted has been demonstrated in Columbia county where considerable of it was planted this spring after the winter floods and excellent results are being obtained, according to George A. Nelson, county agent. On the Herman Mannen farm at Midland Western Rye was planted the first of April and to angling to and including April 14, 1935.

was ready to cut 80 days later. It will undoubtedly produce two and three tons per acre, Mr. Nelson said.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Columbia.

Freida Gruetter, Plaintiff, vs. John Gruetter, Defendant.

Publication of Summons TO JOHN GRUETTER, THE ABOVE NAMED DEFENDANT:

In the name of the State of Oregon; You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this SUMMONS, which date of expiration is fixed by Order of Judge L. R. Rutherford, County Judge of Columbia County, State of Oregon and who is duly authorized by law to act as Judge presiding and sign all papers in the absence of the Circuit Judge of said Columbia County, Oregon, as of August 1st, 1934; If you fail so to appear and answer, the plaintiff for want of her will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit:

For a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and that the same be held for naught; that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for her Court costs and attorneys fees in the sum of one hundred fifty and no/100 Dollars and that the plaintiff have the absolute custody of the minor child Benjamin and the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of Thirty five and no/100 Dollars per month for the support and education of said minor son Benjamin and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This SUMMONS is served upon you by publication thereof by Order of the Honorable L. R. Rutherford, Judge of the County Court, Columbia County, State of Oregon, and in the absence of the Judge of the Circuit Court of Columbia County, State of Oregon, and who is duly authorized by law to act as presiding Judge in the above entitled Court and sign all papers in connection therewith.

Said Court Order made and entered on this 1st day of August, 1934, directing that such publication be made in the Vernonia Eagle, Vernonia, Oregon, not less than once a week for four consecutive weeks from the date of the first publication hereof.
