EVANGELICAL W.M.S. HEARS NEW PASTOR

An inspirational devotional service led by Rev. A. N. Glanville, pastor of the Evangelical church, was the outstanding feature of the regular program of the Woman's Missionary society held in the church Wednesday afternoon.

Other members on the program included a vocal solo by Mrs. F. D. Macpherson, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Clark, a report of current events from the mission stations by Mrs. A. W. Sauer, and a missionary leaflet reading by Mrs. L. H. Roberson.

Mrs. H. M. Bigelow reviewed the last chapter of the society's study book "Eastern Women Today and Tomorrow," stressing the closer fellowship of East and West.

Circle reports occupied much of the business meeting. Mrs. W. T. Graves of the Betty Brite circle announced plans for a garden sale of seeds and bulbs, roots and cuttings to be held after the first fall rains. Mrs. E. J. Douglass of the Martha circle challenged the other circles to an attendance record at regular missionary meetings.

Plans for the annual public reception for teachers were started.

Circle meetings for the month were announced as follows: Betty Brites at the home of Mrs. H. M. Bigelow, next Tuesday, Sept. 11; Deborahs at Mrs. J. H. Burnside's on Monday, Sept. 17; Pollyannas at Mrs. E. S. Thompson's on Wednesday, Sept. 19; and the Marthas at Mrs. C. U. Enstrom's on Tuesday, Sept. 25.

Hostesses for the meeting who served dainty refreshments were Mrs. Sidney Malmsten, Mrs. A. C. Knauss, Mrs. Dora Washburn and Mrs. Paul Gordon.

LUNCHEON IS GIVEN FOR NEW MEMBERS

The graduating members of Mrs. L. H. Dewey's Sunday school class gave a luncheon in the Evangelical church social halls Thursday, August 30, for the new members, who will join the class next Sunday.

The girls enjoyed basket ball and other games during the afternoon. The committee in charge of arrangements included LaVerne Thompson, Ruby Condit and Dorothy Myers.

Others present were Mrs. Dewey, Elsie Duncan, Erma Kent, Frances Childs, Constance Stanton, Maxine John, Heidi Reich, Myrtle Thornbrau, Esther Froembling and Kiyoko Kuge.
