brazing works in appreciation of his service.

A sumptuous meal was prepared the Nehalem social club, and the Rainbow girls waited on the tables. Both deserve high praise for the speed with which the numerous guests were served, there being no delays and no cold food.

The decorations were attractive, the stage being dressed to represent a camp.

Several out of town guests were present, including Sheriff Oscar G. Weed, David O. Bennett, Harry Magnus, Ben Bartel, W. A. Holcomb, R. G. Howard and Mr. Forsyth of St. Helens, and Art Steele of Clatskanie.

CALL FOR WARRANTS
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all general fund warrants of Columbia county, Oregon, endorsed "not paid for want of funds" on or before Dec. 30, 1933, were called for payment on the date of this notice.

Dated, St. Helens, Oregon, October 12, 1934.

Treasurer Columbia County, Ore.

to their employers the word came back:

"Pass him up—he's too old."
"The Giants begrudgingly offered $15,000 for Davis, figuring they might get a season's work out of him before he was carted off to the old folks' home, but the Seals responded to this nibble by trying to dent Charlie Stoneham's bank-roll for $25,000 and the deal chilled.

Paid $7,500 for Him.
"At the end of the season the Phils acquired this bargain in ivory for the waiver price, $7,500. By winning 19 games for the Phils, including a shut-out of the Giants in the heat of the pennant race, he was the first pitcher with the exception of Jumbo Elliott, to do so since the days of Grover Cleveland Alexander, who usually carved out his 19-plus plenty more.

"So Curt Davis, while he may not be the colorful, compelling character that sets Daffy Dean apart from the rest, can point to his 1934 record when the magnates begin bartering for him this winter and remind them:

"'Daffy and I are the stand-outs of the year.'"

Davis began his professional career with Vernonia just ten years ago. The locals needed a pitcher, and one of the Indians who played on the team recommended Davis, then a mechanic in a garage at Rickreall. His wages were $25 a week in the garage, and he was offered the same sum if he would come here and play baseball. He accepted, with such success that Vernonia won the championship of the Lower Columbia River league, and lost only one game to Rydewood, 4 to 3.

From Vernonia Davis went to the Salt Lake club in the Utah-Idaho league and afterwards was five years with San Francisco.

He is still Vernonia's popular baseball hero, and many a local fan made it a point to journey to Vaughn street grounds whenever he was scheduled to pitch for the Seals.

COUNTY PIONEERS ENJOY
CLATSKANIE MEETING

(Clatskanie Chief.)
The Columbia County Pioneers association held their annual meeting in Clatskanie last Saturday with about 80 in attendance.

A. C. Gage, editor of the Spectator and the Angora Journal, gave the principal address of the day, giving much of his informal address to the growth and development of Oregon literature.

Martin White, W. J. Fullerton, C. L. Conyers and others of the pioneers addressed the gathering briefly. Mr. Conyers read an extract from the diary of his father, telling of crossing the plans and his early days in Oregon.

The honor guest of the day was Mrs. Anne Greve, Portland, now 84 years of age. Mrs. Greve crossed the plains with her parents in 1852. She is said to be one of the oldest living pioneers in the state. Her grandfather, Elihu G. Bryant, was the founder of the present city of Clatskanie, called in early days, Bryantville.

$350 COFFEE SALES
CONTEST STARTS TODAY

Joseph J. Wangler, local manager of the Safeway store, announces the biggest most gigantic coffee sale that the store has ever sponsored commencing today and ending Wednesday, October 31. Joe states, "You may be the winner—why not try." Just sign the slips that you will get by calling at the Safeway store, and pass them out to your neighbors and friends. Urge them to try one of the three brands of coffee, and present the slips at the Safeway store at the time of the purchase. Each pound of coffee will credit you with five points. The 25 contestants receiving the highest number of points will receive prizes as follows: First, $100; second, $50; third, $25; fourth and fifth, $12.50 each; sixth to fifteenth, $10.00 each; sixteenth to twenty-fifth, $5.00 each.

Prizes will be awarded immediately after the contest closes. Start today! Your spare time may bring you a big cash prize.

Joe also stated that each store has a quota set for each day. The men in the stores that do not reach their quota each day will not be permitted to shave till their quota is reached. They will also have to wear a sign which will read as follows: "Sorry but I must not shave until I reach my coffee quota." Now the question is, will Joe be permitted to shave?

If a man in the store is caught not wearing the sign he will be fined 25 cents. If any man shaves when his record does not permit, he will be fined $1.00. This money is to be collected and is to help finance a party to be given by the two lowest districts to the two districts that exceed their quota by the highest percentage. The party will consist of a dinner and a toastmaster, music, and a smoker at the auditorium, either boxing or wrestling. So let's all enter the big coffee contest and win a prize—and let Joe shave every day.

WHEAT REDUCTION
SET AT TEN PER CENT
FOR NEW CROP YEAR

The wheat production control signers of Columbia county will only need to reduce their wheat acreage 10 per cent for the crop year of 1935 over their average for the base period, in accordance with the communication just received from George E. Ferrell, states Geo. A. Nelson, county agent.

This is five per cent less than was required to reduce the acreage in 1934.

This contracted acreage, or idle land, can not be planted to any revenue producing crops during the year 1935, but must either er remain idle or put in soil building crops to be plowed under or seeded down to crops that will not produce until the year 1936, in accordance with the rules laid down by the wheat section.
