RAINBOW SHOW PLEASES AUDIENCE

The audience which attended the Rainbow show in the Washington school auditorium last Friday night was delighted with the interesting and varied entertainment offered. Members of Nehalem assembly, which sponsored the affair, were pleased with its success financially.

Two one-act plays furnished the main part of the program. The first comedy, entitled "A Scheme that Failed," was presented by a cast composed of Teivo Eloranta, Robert Kirby, Mary Ann Childs, Dorris Anderson, Dorothy Oveson, and Lola Mae Smith.

The cast for the second play, "No Men Are Perfect," included Thelma Lincoln, Dorothy Webb, Alice Hoffman, Zonweiss Douglass, Margaret Salomonsen and Daisy McDonald.

Other numbers on the program included an introductory talk by Sara McGee, tap dancing by Alice Baker and Patricia Baker, a vocal solo by Sara McGee, a piano solo by Mrs. Enoch Dumas, who also accompanied for other musical numbers, and a vocal selection by Zonweiss Douglass, Jeanette John, Sara McGee, Doris Rae Estey and Esther Froembling with Mildred Cason accompanying.

Miss Nan Crary, of the high school faculty, directed the plays, and Mrs. L. H. Dewey, mother advisor of Nehalem assembly assisted with all arrangements. Patricia Baker received a prize for selling the most tickets.

ELOISE GARNER ENTERTAINS PUPILS

Eloise Garner entertained the first grade pupils of the Pleasant Hill school at a Halloween party at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Garner, Monday afternoon.

After traditional games were enjoyed the little guests were seated at a gay table decorated with a pumpkin centerpiece and paper candles, holding fortunes. Baskets of Halloween candies and lolly pop ghosts were clever individual favors. Jack o' lantern salad, sandwiches and cookies were served.

The guests were Bobby Condit, John Schmidlin, Ruby O'Conner, Leone Kelley, Betty Britton, Patsy Thacker, Betty Davis and Lila Schram.

MRS. GLANVILLE ENTERTAINS CIRCLE

Mrs. A. N. Glanville entertained the Martha circle at her home Tuesday afternoon, and served an attractive lunch following the business meeting.

The circle decided to join the Betty Brite and other circles of the Evangelical Missionary society in a Christmas bazaar to be given November 17. They will make miscellaneous hand worked gifts for the affair.

Those present were Mrs. E. J. Douglass, Mrs. Walter Kent, Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Mrs. Franklin Rogers, Mrs. Fred Oveson, Mrs. Lois Clark, Mrs. C. A. Malmsten, Mrs. C. U. Enstrum, Mrs. A. W. Sauer, Mrs. Eda Lindstrom and Mrs. Eva West.

LELA BEVERIDGE IS MARRIED

News of the marriage of Lela Beveridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beveridge, who formerly lived here, to R. C. La Salle at Klamath Falls on October 8 has been received by local friends. Mr. and Mrs. La Salle will make their home in Klamath Falls.

C. S. Hoffman has been laid up for several days with intestinal flu.

NARRATIVE POEM IS STUDY CLUB THEME

Stephen Vincent Benet's narrative poem, "John Brown's Body," was the subject for study at the monthly meeting of the Study club at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hughes Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. L. H. Dewey reviewed the book which treats the South during the Civil war time, and gave a number of readings from it. Mrs. E. J. Douglass gave a sketch of the life of the author. Mrs. E. M. Bollinger presented comment on current literature. A brief sketch of the life of Stephen Foster, composer of Southern folk music, and a musical selection from his works was given by Mrs. Enoch Dumas.

A decision was made to solicit business houses and organizations for the community chest. Mrs. Judd Greenman, vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. E. S. Thompson.

Additional members present were Mrs. H. V. Holcomb, Mrs. Ivan N. McCollom, Mrs. F. D. Macpherson, Mrs. Dave Marshall and Mrs. H. M. Bigelow.

MRS. BRICKEL ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. TAYLOR

Complimenting Mrs. Philip Taylor, former Vernonia resident, who is now visiting relatives here before leaving for her new home at Burns, Mrs. Ben Brickel entertained with three tables of bridge Thursday afternoon of last week.

Pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee featured the attractive refreshments served following bridge at which Mrs. Wilbur Davis held high score.

The guest list included Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Tom Brendel, Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Mrs. Lowell Hieber, Mrs. Frank Hartwick, Mrs. Jack Nance, Mrs. George Plumb, Mrs. J. A. Hughes, Mrs. William Briot, Mrs. William Heath and Mrs. J. H. Stubbs.

HARMONY CLUB ENJOYS HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Harmony club enjoyed a Halloween party at 1008 Second avenue Thursday evening. A business meeting was held and new officers were re-elected. All members except one were present.

The hostess's home was decorated with cornstalks and lighted pumpkins with ghosts, black cats, and witches lurking around.

Fortunes were told with apples and walnuts.

The tables were decorated by Halloween favors and candies. A luncheon of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and cocoa was served.
