

Personal

Herman Veal, who returned from a visit to Alberta, Canada, a week ago Wednesday, was confined to his home for several days with a severe cold. His sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Whitehead, and daughter from Alberta are here with him to remain for the winter.

Mrs. Charles Rich has been ill with a cold for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Slack arrived Friday from Salem and expect to spend the winter here. Both are former residents of Vernonia, Mrs. Slack being the daughter of E. W. Poetter, and Mr. Slack being in the employ of the state forestry department.

Kathryn Malmsten of Portland was here Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Malmsten.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Thomas were Portland visitors Tuesday. Mrs. J. A. Holtham took their places in the variety store.

J. J. Russell of the state forestry department came Friday night from Salem.

B. Rose has moved into Mike Lynch's house on Maple street.

Mrs. Jimmy Cline of Portland was in Vernonia Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Enola Williams.

J. F. Rose returned Tuesday from Clatskanie, where he was manager of the Safeway market for a short time. The company closed the market there last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield are continuing their residence in Vernonia, having decided not to move to Forest Grove, where Mr. Hatfield has employment. Mrs. Hatfield is still conducting her hemstitching shop in the balcony of the Miller Mercantile store.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Thompson and Bill of O.-A. hill moved to Wymer, Ore., October 14. They moved here from Camp McGregor and resided here one year. Mr. Thompson will be superintendent of the CCC at Wymer.

Doris Estey was among the students who attended the football game in Clatskanie Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Dodge of Portland spent the week end at the H. C. Ridenour home. She brought with her Larry Ridenour, who has been visiting her the past six weeks.

Mrs. Verda Cook of Riverview entertained the sewing club at her home last Wednesday. Those present included Mrs. Leroy Calhoun, Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. Cecil Urie.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones has been named R. S. in honor of R. S. Jones, the paternal grand father.

Mrs. T. H. Burnside is at home again this week.

Larry and Jack Marshall experienced great difficulty getting home from their fishing trip on the Nehalem a week ago due to the storm. Many trees were across the road.

Mrs. John Ross served lunch Wednesday to members of the sewing club. Her guests were Mrs. Geo. Cobat, Mrs. E. Snyder, Mrs. Ted Aspinall, Mrs. Verda Cook, Miss Hazel Chapman, Mrs. Harold Ridenour, Mrs. Leroy Calhoun, and Mrs. Roy Cobat.

Maxine Hartwick, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartwick, who became seriously ill with pneumonia last Friday, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Thompson took their son Elvere, Jr., to Portland Thursday of last week for a medical examination.

Jackie Gibson is one among many small children about town who are suffering from severe colds.

Mrs. J. W. Beal, sister of Mrs. C. L. Brock, is here from White Salmon, Wash., to visit for the week while Mr. Beal is in a hospital. Mr. Beal was in business in Vernonia a number of years ago.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
All complaints regarding law enforcement within the city should be made to the police committee of the city council, who alone have the power to act in all such cases.
Ben S. Owens,
Mayor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy extended us in the recent loss of our sister and aunt, and for the many flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Robbins
Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Robbins and Family
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mason
Mrs. Elsie Parker and daughter Juanita

CAMP FIRE NEWS

On October 27 the Camp Fire Girls gave a farewell party for Vivian Laird, who is moving to Marshfield. Mrs. Christenson presented Vivian with a present. We had a regular Camp Fire lunch of weiners, buns and marshmallows. There were about 15 girls present. We would like more of our members to come.

Churches

UNDENOMINATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday morning: Sunday school at 9:45. Bible school at 11 o'clock.

Sunday evening: Rev. D. White to speak. A little man but a forceful speaker. Rev. White's subject will be, "Two Saw Mills." Everybody welcome.
Evangelist F. Petty.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45. Sermon at 11 o'clock by the pastor, "Midnight or the Storm of Ages." Young Peoples' meeting, 6:30 p. m., subject, "What is Wrong and What is Right with the United States."

Evangelistic service at 7:30, the pastor speaking again on the very interesting subject, "A Great Trapper."

Next Wednesday night at 8:00 the pastor will begin a course of prophetic Bible study, dealing with dispensational truth in connection with current events, using a large canvas chart that will simplify the study. This course of study is undenominational and appeals to old and young alike. Those intending to follow the entire course should be in the first meeting to more clearly understand what will follow. Bring your Bible and writing tablet.

A. N. Glanville, pastor.
Evangelical Sunday School
Class 8, composed of high school students and taught by Rev. Glanville, traveled the furthest last Sunday in the automobile race. This places them in second position in the race, with class 1 not far ahead.

Special features will be given during the opening exercises Sunday. Remember—school begins at 9:45 prompt. Be on time and enjoy all of it.

Special plans are being made for Thanksgiving. Details announced Sunday.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bible school, 9:45; morning worship at 11:00; C. E. at 6:30 p. m., evening service at 7:30. You are welcome.

C. R. Pritchard, pastor.
