ELECTION OF OFFICERS IS POSTPONED

Postponing the regular election of officers until the December meeting, members of the Evangelical Missionary society attended to other business matters at their meeting in the church Wednesday afternoon.

It was decided to arrange for a public reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilkerson before they move to St. Helens where Mr. Wilkerson will assume the office of county judge. The date will be announced later.

Final plans were announced for the free baby clinic and the Christmas bazaar to be given Saturday, November 17, which is one of the largest projects the society has undertaken for some time. The Betty Brite circle has arranged the clinic, and will sell at the bazaar baby clothing, kitchen articles, cooked food and a noon lunch. Other circles will assist. The Pollyanna Circle will sell Pollyanna aprons, the Deborah circle will have a grab bag, candy, marmalade and pickles. The Martha circle will sell a variety of hand-made articles.

The Pollyanna circle had the largest attendance present.

Guest day, which usually is observed in December, will be postponed until later in the year, because of the election of officers.

The program included readings by Mrs. L. A. Rogers and Mrs. A. W. Sauer. Mrs. Dave Marshall, Mrs. Fred Wall, Mrs. Walter Kent and Mr. F. D. Macpherson discussed various phases of missionary work in Japan as presented in the study book.

A vocal trio composed of Mrs. L. H. Dewey, Mrs. C. A. Malmsten and Mrs. Sidney Malmsten gave a special musical number.

Members of the Betty Brite circle served refreshments.

CLUB ENTERTAINS AT TACKY PARTY

A "tacky" party was the mode chosen by members of the Queen of Hearts bridge club to entertain their husbands and a few friends at Arcadia park Tuesday evening of last week.

Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mr. Lowell Hieber and to O. T. Bateman. Bridge prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. William Briot.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry King, Ina Stevens, O. T. Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hieber, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nance, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George Plumb, Mr. and Mrs. William Heath, Mr. and Mrs. William Briot, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brickel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartwick.

CHRISTIAN W. M. S. PLANS EVENING SERVICE

The missionary society of the Christian church, which met at the home of Mrs. Roy Brady last Friday afternoon, made arrangements for an evening missionary service to be given in the Christian church on Tuesday evening, November 20. The purpose is to help raise a travel fund for Goldie Wells, a missionary going to Africa.

Plans were also made for several members of the local society to attend a one day missionary convention at the Fern Park Christian church in Portland Wednesday of this week.

"Oriental Americans" was the theme for the program, with Mrs. C. R. Pritchard as leader, each member participated, presenting various aspects of missionary work among the Orientals living in the United States.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR THREE IS HELD

RIVERVIEW - (Special - Mrs. Glen Hawkins entertained Saturday night at a birthday party for her father, Pete Serafin of Wilark, her sister, Yola Serafin of Wilark, and Violet Roberts of Vernonia. There was a huge birthday cake for each of the three honor guests, and each received many presents.
