MRS. SOULE'S BIRTHDAY HONORED

Honoring the 84th birthday of Mrs. A. Soule Friday afternoon a party was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Malmsten, where she lives. The affair was a surprise arranged by Mrs. L. A. Rogers assisted by Mrs. Walter Kent. Mrs. E. J. Douglas, whose birthday was on the same day, shared the honors.

There was a shower of gift for both honor guests. Birthday cakes and coffee were served.

Those present were Mrs. Eda Lindstrom, Mrs. A. W. Sauer, Mrs. Franklin Rogers, Mrs. Emma Weed, Mrs. Fred Overson, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Lois Clark, Mrs. C. A. Malmsten, Mr. Walter H. Kent and Mrs. Soule.

TULIP PROJECT STARTED BY LOCAL WOMEN

A charming event of last week was the Loyal Women's social meeting in the Christian church parlors, Thursday afternoon. A theme of fall bulb planting centered around tulips, and introduced the "Tulip (trulip) lady" project.

Each of the 104 ladies of the organization was presented with a potted double tulip, which concealed the name of some member who was to be her "tulip lady" throughout the year, and for whom she must do little favors and kindnesses.

Mrs. Tom Graves gave the history of the tulip. LaVerne Bassett gave a reading and Ada Mills sang a solo. Books on tulips were displayed for those interested.

The rooms were attractively arranged, lighted floor lamps furnished a pleasant note. Gay cutouts of bright flowers decorated the walls and formed the material for a contest in naming flowers, for which Mrs. Tom Graves won the prize.

Mrs. Robert Raymer and Mrs. New served refreshments.
