the Oregon state chamber of commerce regarding availability of land for settlers from the drouth area was read by President L. H. Dewey. No action was taken, the consensus of opinion being that in this locality a person who is clearing for himself a ranch should have part time employment for support.

Railing Petition Acknowledged

Reply to the chamber of commerce petition that a railing be placed beside the highway on the first hill south of town was received from Chairman Leslie M. Scott of the highway commission. The matter has been referred to Election of officers is scheduled for the next meeting, Mr. Dewey announced.

The meeting in the interest of the Blue Jay basketball team has been postponed, Mr. Dewey also declared until the line-up is definitely known.

Churches

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The Annual Harvest Home Service of the Evangelical church will be observed next Sunday morning. The rostrum will be banked with fruits of the harvest brought by members and friends of the church. They will be distributed during the week as Thanksgiving gifts to needy families.

A "pot-luck" dinner will be served in the social hall following the morning church service. Music and talks will complete the afternoon of fellowship.

A special Thanksgiving program will be given during the Sunday school hour at 9:45. A number of classes are also planning harvest homes displays.

The pastor, Rev. A. N. Granville, will preach a special Thanksgiving sermon during the morning worship hour beginning at 11 a.m.

Last Sunday the Sunday School observed Father and Son day with the following program. "Welcome Dads" by Everett Carter, "A Girl's Tribute to Her ather" by Mary Ann Childs, "When Dad Comes Home" by Howard Reeher, "The Boyless Town" by Mrs. C. A. Malmsten, and a vocal solo "Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day" by Mrs. L. H. Dewey.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

MISSIONARY SOCIETY GIVES BENEFIT PROGRAM

The missionary program given in the Christian church Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Goldie Wells travel fund included a talk by C. R. Pritchard on the size of Africa and the need for home support of missionaries to that country, a review of the book "Bicycling through Africa" by Mrs. Nola Brady, a review of Goldie Wells' own account of "A New Road out of Africa from Congo to Cairo" by Mrs. L. L. Wells, and the reading of a letter from Goldie Wells about her work in Africa.

Missionary songs were sung by the audience, and Mrs. J. F. Rose and Mrs. C. R. Pritchard sang a duet. An offering was taken and refreshments were served.

Forest greenery and stuffed animals were arranged in the rooms to suggest African surroundings.

of books. It also displayed this year's book week theme, "Ride the Book Trail to Knowledge and Adventure."

Dorothy's poster which she painted in darker tones, predominately blues and greens, was an excellent piece of work and even more attractive than the large official poster executed in lighter colors on a yellow background which was displayed in Miller's window.

Dorothy, who is the daughter of Mrs. R. M. Acord, and is not quite 14 years old, made the poster at home and entirely by herself.

ated in Portland during the past month have revealed an average of 17 per cent of all cars operated in Oregon have defective brakes, while 37 per cent have defective lights, sponsors of the safety drive pointed out. Approximately 10 per cent of more than 8,000 cars tested in Portland were found to be defective in both particulars—lights and brakes.
