COMMITTEES TO BUILD LOCKERS ARE APPOINTED

A student body meeting was held Monday during activity period.

President Holly Holcomb appointed the following committees to build lockers for the basketball boys: Elmo Aldridge, Charles McGraw, Bill French and Norman Crowder.

It was decided that the school would have a Christmas tree. The following committee was appointed to get the tree: Roy Barnes, Garland Monger, Stanley Parker. Mr. Skuzie was appointed to act as Santa Claus.

The students are going to decide on a name for the football and basketball team. A ballot box will be fixed where different names may be placed. A committee will then select the three best names for the students to vote upon.

Here and There

Here we are back to school hoping the teachers will not be too hard on us because we ate too much turkey.

TEACHERS NOW ON NOON SCHEDULE

Some member of the high school faculty will be on duty each day during the noon hour. Mr. Skuzie, who until last week brought his lunch to school, attended to this matter. Since he moved into the Overson house he goes home for lunch. The teachers will take turns supervising the noon hour. Miss Crary is on duty this week.

tor and the writer of this column. The teachers all said they spent a very enjoyable week end and not one of them have any suspicious marks on them.

Miss Hughes found one of her dogs. By his numerous patches and bruises it looked like it had been through a fight with its mate.

Mr. Skuzie is a remarkable magician. He picks up a piece of chalk and waves it in the air and presto! It becomes four pieces—on the floor.

Talk about report card grades, there is more kick coming from the students this six weeks than in the last ten years. What's the trouble? Your guess is as good as mine.

Alice Hoffman is the nuttiest girl in the school. She brought a whole load of hazel nuts to school and cracked them by slamming a window on them. The result was that it was impossible to tell the nut from the shell. The whole business tasted fine.

There's a lot of acrobatic work going around here. That Acord guy is a very foul acrobat. He sat on the arm of a chair and started to fall. He shouted, "Ed, (Baker) I'm losing my equilibrium." "I don't care. Maybe you can sit better without it," was the reply. Well, he couldn't and the chair and he took the prettiest tumble you ever saw.

Do you know how to develop good stomach muscles? Just eat some of the Home Ec class' cooking.

Speaking of home ec, reminds us that the three of four kittens down there have vanished and in their place are three or four rats and mice.

Oh yes, about that other acrobat story. Some unidentified member of the student body slid on the fire escape and furnished a great deal of amusement for the sophomore English class. And some people think that English is a dry class.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team of the Vernonia high school has begun practice with a large turn out and is showing great prospects of having a good team this year.

The high school fans are expecting the boys to give them some good ball games. So, boys, come out to practice and do your stuff to be the winning team this year. Everyone is depending on you to carry out the same spirit and sportsmanship that you did in football. Then, if you do your part, it is the duty of the student body to do their part to support you with as much "pep" and enthusiasm and sportsmanship as they did during the football season.

So let's keep up the old spirit and put this season over in a big way.

that he makes typing errors every time that a girl speaks to him. Aw, he's in love.

Some of our amateur biologists think that Chiroptera is a type of physicians. Just another way of saying that some doctors are batty.

PERSONALS

Ben Wilkerson graduate of V.H.S. in '34 and now attending Pacific university, has been pledged to the Alpha Zeta fraternity.

WHERE? WHAT? WHEN?

Don't forget the Girls' league bazaar to be held tomorrow morning at Mrs. Miner's bakery.

This will include not only a sale of hand-made articles, but also food and candy.

At noon the girls will serve a luncheon at a very small cost.

POOR OLD PLUTO

Miss Hughes finally found Pluto but the poor thing was certainly in a terrible shape. He probably got into a fight with Fido and chased Fido out of the country. Fido hasn't turned up as yet. That's why he was hiding in the wood pile. His conscience was bothering him and he could not bear to show himself after playing such a dirty trick on Fido.

But Fido did give a good account of himself. He chewed a hunk out of Pluto's ear and bit him on the nose. Therefore Pluto made his appearance on Miss Hughes' desk with bandages all over his head. In fact he was a very sad dog.

TERM PAPERS ASSIGNED IN SENIOR ENGLISH

The members of the senior class will write a 2500 word paper in their English work for the six-weeks period.

The topic for the paper is chosen by the student, dealing with a subject in which he is interested and wants to learn more about.

The purpose of the theme is to give the pupils practice in finding material, criticizing books and writing a paper correct in form, punctuation and style.

Book reports for all English classes are to be given orally during the six-weeks period. Miss Crary has set December 21 as the last date book reports may be given.

Mr. Condit was at school last Wednesday.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE PRESENTED AFTER HOLIDAYS

The junior play, "How Comes Patricia," will be presented after the Christmas vacations. The first plans were to give the play before Christmas, but other activities conflict. The date will be announced later.

Excellent progress has been made on the play. The cast learned the first act in one week. They are now practicing the second act. The cast enjoys working on the play immensely, and also working with Miss Crary, their coach. The play is an uproarious comedy.

GLEE CLUB HAS APPRECIATION LESSONS ON EACH TUESDAY

The glee club for the last few weeks has been having appreciation lessons each Tuesday. Each student selects a composer or performer and gives interesting points and facts about his life. They also try to find some of his works to present to the class.

Last week Charles McGraw gave a talk on Bach. This week Mildred Woods gave a lecture on Strauss.

The class would appreciate any records that anyone would donate to the class.

These appreciation lessons give the students a broader knowledge of music and helps them to appreciate the finer types of music.

The girls' league has donated some money to the glee club to help them purchase their music.

Miss Alley, county school nurse, and Dr. Bigelow were at school Wednesday.

Stanley Overson has returned to school after an absence of several weeks due to illness.
