A BEAR STORY (Forest Log)

Paul Thompson, superintendent of the Wimer CCC camp, stopped recently at Timber on his way south. While there he was admiring a bear that was tied up at a service station. The bear finally crawled down off his shed, walked the full length of his chain and looked Paul over. Evidently, there was something that did not meet with his approval and bruin made a round house swing at Paul. Paul misjudged the blow and pulled in his neck instead of his stomach. The bear
