REBEKAHS, ODD FELLOWS GIVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

A number of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Kilby Monday evening for a social meeting and Christmas party. Many unusual games were played and a mock radio program was given with members present supposedly taking leading roles causing much merriment among the other listeners. Also a surprise package containing prizes, fortunes, etc., was opened by each member. The guessing contest prizes were won by Arvada Lines and Ira Peterson.

At a late hour a bountiful lunch was served to the following: Viola Treharne, Ruby Biggs, Florence McDonald, Mrs. Spoford, Grace Miner, Ella O'Conner, Bessie Herrin, Grace Sunell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, Arvada Lines, Ira Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lines, Calvin Plummer, Lena Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Salomonsen, Selma Webb and Beulah Baslington, besides the host and hostess.

After the lunch Christmas presents were exchanged. Assisting the hostess during the evening were Margaret Lines and Grace Sunell. All present reported one of the most enjoyable evenings of the past year.

RAINBOW GIRLS HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Christmas party given by Nehalem assembly, Order of Rainbow, in the Masonic temple Monday night, proved a delightful occasion for members and their guests from the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges.

Games and entertainment were arranged by Lolamae Smith and Jeanne Hughes, and the refreshment committee included Helen Messing, Maxine Bollinger and Mrs. L. H. Dewey, mother advisor.

An exchange of gifts was enjoyed, and the evening's festivities concluded with the singing of Christmas carols as the guests were gathered around the Christmas tree.

A brief business session, taking the place of the regular meeting which would fall on Christmas eve, preceded the party. At that time the annual birthday party was announced for January 4.

HAZEL LA CHINE HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin LaChine gave a farewell party for Hazel LaChine at their home Tuesday evening. Hazel, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. LaChine, is leaving for her home in Toledo, Wash., the first of the year.

The guests were Joyce New, Ethel Spencer, Louise Craford, Edna Craford, Margaret McNutt, Zelta Miller, Margaret Salomonsen, Katherine Dowler, Nina MacDonald, Jonnibell Hatfield, Phyllis New, Doris Standinger, Dean

Standinger, Robert Kilby, Ward Plummer, Floyd Rose, Elmo Aldridge, Mickey New, Lamar Landry, Joe McNutt, Bill French, Leo Ludwig, Bert Mills and Roy New.

GLEANERS MEET FOR DEVOTIONAL SERVICE

The Loyal Gleaners met at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon for a devotional service based on the Christmas story from Luke, followed by a business meeting.

Committees were appointed to decorate the church for the Christmas program, and to arrange Christmas baskets for the needy.

Articles left from the bazaar of last week were displayed and most of them sold. Many "tulip lady" gifts were presented.

Hostesses who served refreshments were Mrs. Otto Michener and Mrs. Nola Brady.

G. E. CLUB HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the G. E. club was enjoyed Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Virgil Powell, which was beautifully decorated with a Christmas tree and other symbols of the holiday season.

Mrs. W. M. Henderson received the prize for bridge after which gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Others present were Mrs. H. E. McGaw, Mrs. Harry Kerns, Mrs. J. L. Timmons, Mrs. W. J. Armistage, Mrs. Lloyd Baker and Mrs. Harry King.

CHAPTER PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Plans for a Christmas party to be held in the Masonic temple this evening for Masons and all members of their families were made at a meeting of Nehalem chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday night.

Joint installation of officers for the Eastern Star and Masonic lodges was announced for December 27. The chapter also planned to furnish several Christmas baskets.

Results of the Nehalem club bazaar of last week were very successful according to reports.

DANCE IS HELD BY NEHALEM ASSEMBLY

A successful and enjoyable dance sponsored by Nehalem assembly, Order of Rainbow, was given in the Odd Fellows hall last Friday night, Stella's band of Forest Grove furnishing the music. Helen Messing was in charge of arrangements.

Another dance is being planned for January 18.

A. V. Mowe, who was in Portland Wednesday, reports that he saw several auto smash-ups because of the heavy rain storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ratkie of Everett, Wash., who formerly lived here, are the parents of a son born December 17. The baby is a brother of Mrs. Harvard Malmsten of Vernonia.

May the Day Be Merry
