CHRISTMAS PAGEANT IS CHURCH FEATURE

A Christmas pageant presented by the high school class of the Evangelical Sunday school and directed by Mrs. Enoch Dumas was an interesting part of the Christmas program at the Evangelical church Sunday evening.

Characters of the pageant were Mary, Bernice Rose; Joseph, Robert Acord; Shepherds and wise men, Elmer Glanville, Howard Reeher and Oren Weed; Angel, Jeanette John, Mary Ann Childs and Thelma Lincoln. Rev. A. N. Glanville read the scripture, and the musical background was furnished by a hidden choir directed by Mrs. L. H. Dewey. Mildred Cason accompanied.

A distant hidden orchestra played Christmas music before the program began at 7:30. Preceding the pageant the Sunday school children gave the following program, with Mrs. Franklin Rogers presiding:

Manger song, beginners department; reading, Barbara Malmsten; song "Why do Bells for Christmas Ring?"; primary department; exercise, "Holly Berries," Mrs. Harvard Malmsten's class; exercise, "The Christmas Ship," Mrs. Kent's boys' class; song, "Holy Night," Pleasant Hill school quartet; exercise, "Winter," Mr. Dumas' boys' class; duet, Erma Kent and Frances Childs.

Gifts for Christmas baskets were brought to the church both morning and evening and a very substantial evening offering for charity enabled the committee to purchase everything needed to completely furnish a Christmas dinner and gifts for every family in its care.

A Christmas tree, festoons of greenery and the manger scene formed a beautiful setting for the program.

Christmas treats for the children of the Sunday school were presented at the morning Sunday school hour.

O. E. S. ENTERTAINS MASONS AND FAMILIES

For Masons and their families, members of Nehalem chapter, O. E. S., entertained with a Christmas party at the Masonic temple last Friday night.

The traditional Christmas tree, the exchange of gifts, games, singing of carols, and refreshments, with pop corn balls for the children featured the evening's festivities.

The entertainment committee included Mrs. L. H. Dewey, Mrs. Albert Childs and Mrs. O. D. Mc-Cabe. Mrs. W. R. Hammack, Mrs. C. L. Brock and Mrs. W. T. Lilly prepared the refreshments.

BRIDGE CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of the Queen of Hearts Bridge club enjoyed their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Ben Brickel last Friday afternoon.

A Christmas tree and the exchange of gifts were special features of the occasion. Mrs. Frank Hartwick received the prize for honors in contract.

Others present were Mrs. Lowell Hieber, Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. J. A. Hughes, Mrs. Jack Nance and Mrs. William Briot.

MR. AND MRS. L. A. BOECK ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wall and baby of Toledo are spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Wall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence New.

MRS. CALHOUN AND MRS. RIDENOUR ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Roy Calhoun and Mrs. Harold Ridenour were joint hostesses for the Stitchwell club last week at the Calhoun residence. The Christmas motif was observed throughout and especially appropriate was the luncheon table decorated with candles and holly. The afternoon was spent in sewing and Christmas presents were exchanged. Those present were Mrs. Roy Cobat, Mrs. M. G. Chapman, Mrs. Geo. Cobat, Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. Arbie G. Gove, Mrs. Blaine Cobat, Miss Hazel Chapman, Mrs. Everett Snyder, Mrs. Cecil Urie and the hostesses.

Caught in The Rounds

Merle Cline is recovering nicely from a serious attack of pneumonia, and has been removed from the hospital to the home of his sister, Mrs. P. L. Hewes, in Portland. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cline of Vernonia, and his wife and children spent Christmas with him at the Hewes home. Although much improved, Mr. Cline is not yet strong enough to be brought to his home here.

Helen Messing went to Hood River Saturday for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duncan were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Nance had her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cline, as guests for an early Christmas dinner on Monday, so that they might spend Christmas day in Portland with their son Merle Cline, who is recovering from a serious illness.

Vivian Douglass arrived in Vernonia Christmas day to visit for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Douglass. Wayne Eckman of McMinnville is also a guest at the Douglass home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsley and family of Portland were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Goertzen.

A son was born early Christmas morning to Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Whitlock of St. Helens at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, according to a front page story in Tuesday night's Journal. Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock were once residents of Vernonia where Mr. Whitlock was manager of the former Penney store. Mrs. Whitlock is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krinnick of this city.

A. J. Hughes spent Christmas day with his family here.

Fred Wall, who has been working at Toledo, came home to spend Christmas with his family. He will remain a while as the Toledo mill is shut down temporarily.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Garner and Mrs. Emma Weed was the scene of a family reunion when Sheriff and Mrs. Oscar Weed and children and grandchildren motored over from St. Helens to spend Christmas day.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dewey for Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cady and daughters Zella and Bonnigene of Portland.

Mrs. A. N. Fisher of Portland arrived Saturday evening to spend Christmas week at the home of her son, Ray D. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker of Banks and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartwick and daughter Maxine were guests at the H. E. McGraw home on Christmas day for dinner and a family reunion. Mr. McGraw, who has been in Salem, was home for the day.

Friends here received Christmas greetings from Sara McGee, who wrote from New Orleans, saying she was having a wonderful time on her trip in the south.

E. H. Washburn left Wednesday for Kettle Falls, Wash., to spend two weeks with Mrs. Washburn's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ryves and daughter Jean of Bremerton, Wash., spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Washburn.

FORD PRESENTS ANOTHER ADVANCE IN TRUCK ENGINEERING

THE important fact to remember about the new Ford V-8 Truck for 1935 is not merely that it gives you new money-saving features—but that these features have been added to a truck whose economy, performance, stamina have already been proved.

For 1935, Ford gives you an entirely new development—Forward Load Distribution. This makes possible more uniform tire and brake wear—better brake action—improved operation and wear throughout the truck. In addition, with more space between the cab and rear axle, the 1935 Ford V-8 permits acute angle turns with full-width semi-trailers.

No matter how efficiently you are now doing your hauling, these and the other features of the 1935 Ford V-8 are important advantages to consider. They are matched by no other truck in America today, regardless of price.

Test this new Ford V-8 Truck yourself. Your nearest Ford dealer will let you do this... on your own job, under your own load, with your own driver!
