Grade School Pupils Come from Many States and Countries

It is surprising to see how many different countries and states are represented in the Washington grade school.

Among the children in the Vernonia grade school eighty-seven were born in Vernonia.

The school children represent all the following states: Arkansas, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Texas, Colorado, Mississippi, North Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Michigan, Minnesota, Tennessee, South Dakota, California, Tennessee, Indiana, Louisiana, Iowa and Oregon, making a total of twenty-one states represented.

The grade school also has several children who were born in other countries. Esmino Matthew was born in the Philippine Islands. Charley Minger, Heidi Reich and Fritz Hausler were born in Switzerland. Kiyoko Kuge in Japan, John McKenzie in Scotland, Billy Duncan in Alaska and John Chambers and Claude Veal were born in Canada, making a total of nine children who were born in other countries.

Operetta Will Be Given

The first and second grades under the direction of Miss Anderson are planning to give the operetta, "Goldie Locks and the Three Bears."

The eighth grade girls home economics class will design and make the costumes.

Boys Make Many Useful Things

In industrial arts class the eighth grade have just completed neck-tie holders, and are now starting to make broom holders. Later on they will make box-kites.

Civics Classes Interested in Congress

The eighth grades are studying in their civics class about this session of Congress. Editorials, news items, cartoons and pictures concerning the opening of Congress and the work that has been done are being brought to school and posted on the bulletin boards.

Eighth Grade Hears President

On January 3 the eighth grade had the privilege of hearing over the radio the opening of the seventy-fourth session of Congress and the election of Joseph W. Byrnes as Speaker of the House of Representatives.

On January 4 they listened to President Roosevelt's message to Congress.

POLITICIANS HAVE A WRECKING TIME

(Clatskanie Chief)

Last week was a bad one for Columbia county's democratic politicians.

Mrs. Grace Kent Magruder had the misfortune to have a motorist back into her car near Columbia City recently, wrecking it. Later she went to the Rose City with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caswell and their car was wrecked. They do not claim, however, that she is a jinx, but Mrs. Magruder is planning on getting a new car to legislate back and forth from Salem where she begins Monday serving her first term as representative.

Last week, O. Henry Oleen was going to Portland and wrecked his car near Linnton. He is county representative to the state legislature.

A week ago yesterday, the milk truck of J. Tilden Graham, new county commissioner, was wrecked on the icy pavement near Dead Man's curve.

But then, a bad start may mean a fine ending.
