IMPRESSIONISM

"You ought to know a great deal of politics by this time."
"I try to pay attention," answered Senator Sorghum. "But I'm afraid I'm getting to be like a whole lot of people who are influenced not so much by what they know as by what they suspect."

And One Is "Stung"

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes had been discussing an arrangement which implied the exercise of the "give and take" theory.
"You know," declared Mr. Barnes, "that it always takes two to make a bargain."
"Yes," returned Mrs. Barnes, "but only one of them gets it."

Not Bad

Man—What's your idea of an ideal place for a vacation?
Friend—A place where the fish bite and the mosquitoes do not, and where neither the bees nor the hotel keepers sting you.

Events in the Lives of Little Men

WAFFLES

Little Maurice, being fond of waffles, was busily engaged in buttering the one his mother placed upon his plate and, without looking up, said: "Please pass the waffle juice."

Domesticity

"Would you marry for money?"
"No," answered Miss Cayenne, "that is, not too much money. A man who is constantly being investigated is sure to spend time away from home and be irritable at breakfast."

Aching Feet

Villager (proudly displaying parent to a visitor)—Aye, she's goin' to live to be a centipede, bairn' you ma?
Mother—Oh, go on with you. You wouldn't say so if you 'ad my feet.

Their Position

Miss Quizzer—What makes the wolves in that cage howl so?
The Attendant—They're hungry, miss. They always howl while the other animals are feeding.
Miss Quizzer—Oh, I see! They're the cabaret performers.
