ODD FELLOWS TO PICNIC AUG. 18

At the regular meeting of the Columbia County Odd Fellows association, held here last Tuesday night, it was decided to hold the county picnic at Arcadia park, Vernonia.

The following committee was appointed on program and entertainment; M. E. Turkington, Bob Spencer and Wm. Briot. They have already secured the boys band to play and have arranged for a ball game in the forenoon and one in the afternoon. In addition there will be different contests such as women's rolling pin throwing, horse shoe pitching, various races, and enough other entertainment to provide a full day of pleasure for all.

All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends are expected to turn out, and many are expected from Clatsop county, Portland and Washington county.

Everyone is expected to bring his own baskets, but coffee will be served by the members of Vernonia lodge.

The next meeting of the association will be held at Clatskanie, in September, the date of which will be set later.
